

WOMEN'S CLUBS PLAN IMPORTANT SESSIONS

a graduate of Carlisle university, Scott H. Peters, and it provides Indian programs on any phase of Indian life, in order to give the people of America a fair presentation of the Indian problem.

One of the most notable of the Indian Chiefs, Chief Chibiaboos, sweet singer of the Chippewa tribe, in his colorful native costume, will present the next program of the Highland Park Woman's club, following the business meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 2 o'clock.

Interesting Features

For those who are interested in the Indian problem, as such, the chief will give a reading entitled, "Little Caribou Makes Big Talk," and for those who are interested in the Indian as a cultural part of American life, he will recite some Indian legends, sing Indian songs, and dance Indian dances.

Mrs. John R. Todd, a member of the club, has graciously consented to accompany Chief Chibiaboos. The usual attractive social hour will follow the meeting.

ORTHOGON LENSES

Eyes Strained?

FREQUENT headaches, tiredness, indigestion, inflamed eyes, a depressed feeling, are only a few of the many warnings from overstrained eyes. Continuous neglect may result in permanent suffering.

At Nature's first warning—consult us. A thorough, dependable eye examination and Orthogon Full-Vision Lenses can save you much trouble. Remember, seven out of ten headaches are caused by defective eyesight.
