

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor
Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill. Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield Locals

Roy Miller, proprietor of the Briar Sweet Shop is spending several weeks with friends in Texas.

Mrs. J. R. Notz attended a party in Chicago on Saturday.

A water main broke Wednesday in front of the town hall.

Mrs. Glos of Northbrook and her grand daughter Miss Grace Arline Flint of Highland Park were weekend guests at the J. R. Notz home on Knollwood drive.

Forrest Dukelow of Milwaukee, Wis., visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Pettis on last Wednesday.

The Wilmot school was closed Friday to allow the teachers to visit other schools. They visited the Everett, West Ridge, Lincoln and Brae-side schools.

There will be no movies on Friday evening in the Deerfield auditorium on account of the children's Hallowe'en party, however they will be resumed on Friday, Nov. 7 and the picture will be, Rin Tin Tin in the "Night Cry."

The W. M. S. of the Bethlehem Evangelical church will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 4 at the church. Mrs. E. Giss will lead the devotional service and Mrs. R. Cox, the lesson. Following the meeting, the ladies will cook a dinner to be served to the men of the church at 6 o'clock.

Morris Allsbrow of Hazel avenue and E. J. Giss of Central avenue are planning to leave for Texas on Thursday where they will spend the winter.

The Christian Endeavor of the Bethlehem Evangelical church enjoyed a Hallowe'en party on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. Steiner, Mrs. A. Merner and Mrs. A. Frantz were in charge of the Food Sale given by the ladies of the Bethlehem Evangelical church on Thursday afternoon.

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. have moved into their new quarters on Waukegan road.

Deerfield Business

Men's Bowling League

Standing for week ending Friday, Oct. 24:

	W	L
Reliable Garage	13	5
Notz Hardware	11	7
Deerfield News Agency	10	8
Antes Sign	9	9
Kottrasch Florists	7	11
Shapiro's Grocery	4	14

Many Attend Party at Holy Cross Church

Mrs. J. D. Garrity of Deerfield avenue had the pleasure of winning the lovely quilt given away at the party in the parish hall of the Holy Cross church on last Thursday evening. It was made and donated by Mrs. Whalen of Second street.

Besides the quilt, which was the grand prize of the evening there were many lovely prizes awarded to makers of high scores at bridge, five hundred and bunco.

Ninety guests attended this affair, which was arranged by Mrs. L. Gloden and a committee of women, whose efforts made it an outstanding event of the season.

Hallowe'en decorations contributed color giving the hall a festive air and made a very pretty back ground for the party.

Independent Social Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Otto Trute of Wilmot road was hostess to the Independent Social club at her home on last Wednesday evening.

The occasion marked the birthday anniversary of the president, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, who was the recipient of a five dollar gold piece.

A sumptuous birthday cake made by the hostess adorned the center of the refreshment table.

Twenty-seven guests attended and a very pleasant evening was spent playing "Bingo."

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Johnson on Wednesday, Nov. 12. It will be an afternoon meeting which will open with a 1 o'clock luncheon followed by cards.

Crossing Lights Are Undergoing Repairs

The mechanism of the stop and go lights at the intersection of Waukegan and Deerfield roads was sent away to be repaired and the orange lights are on all the time. Local residents will welcome their return as motorists seem to interpret the orange light in several ways. Most of them thinking that if they hurry they can get through before they change, while few others realize it is a caution sign.

R. N. A. Holds Friends Night October 23 Masonic Hall Oct. 23

Ninety R. N. A. members attended the local camp on Thursday evening, Oct. 23, when "Friends Night" was observed at the Deerfield Masonic temple.

Clara Thompson of North Chicago camp acted as oracle.

Vice oracle, Evelyn Mohr of Wheeling camp; past oracle, Mary Therrien of Highland Park camp; chancellor, Edna Kiest of Northbrook; recorder, Ann Vanden Bloomer of Highland Park; receiver, Lydia Wick of Wheeling; camp; past oracle, Mary Therrien of North Chicago; assistant marshal, Theresa Corrigan of North Chicago; inner sentinel, Minnie Pfingsten of Northbrook; outer sentinel, Mabel Christian of Northbrook; managers, Minnie Whitcomb of Deerfield; Vera Whitcomb of Winnetka; Clara Blodner of Northbrook camp; musician, Mayme Gilkison of Highland Park camp; Faith, Catherine Bucher of Highland Park camp; Courage, Margaret Ditner of North Chicago camp; Modesty, Edna Watkin of Highland Park camp; Unselfishness, Agnes Mead of North Chicago camp; Endurance, May Atkinson of North Chicago camp; Flag bearer, Hilda Olson of Deerfield; juvenile director, Catherine Radcliffe of Highland Park.

Two members of the Deerfield camp including Mary Hoffman and Violet Thompson transferred from the juvenile to the adult camp.

Following the ceremonies, a one act comedy, Dr. Cur-em-all was enjoyed. Those who took part included, Charlotte Fredericks, Hazel Scully, Gladys Page, Hilda Soefker, Emiline Beckman, Ella Bock, Pearl Juhrend, Edna Johnson and Sadie Beckman.

Sandwiches, coffee, pumpkin pie with whipped cream were served in the dining room gayly decorated with hallowe'en favors by the officers of the local camp which brought to a close a most delightful evening.

Holy Name Society Gives "Old Time Dance"

The Holy Name society of the Holy Cross church will give an "Old Time Dance" in St. Patricks hall, West Lake Forest on Wednesday evening Nov. 5 at 8 o'clock.

Eugene Zahnle is chairman of the entertainment committee and will be assisted by Frank O'Connor and J. E. Flanagan.

A snappy orchestra will furnish the music, refreshments will be served and a good time is assured.

Show Picture Sunday

For the edification of his parishioners, Father McDonough, of the Holy Cross church afforded them the privilege of seeing "King of Kings" at the church on Sunday evening.

It was a very beautiful portrayal of the life of Christ and all who attended were deeply impressed.

Presents Pupils in Piano Recital Monday

On Monday evening, Oct. 27, the pupils of Miss Ida Knaak gave a piano recital at her home on Deerfield avenue.

Following is the program:

The Owl and the Pussy Cat	Smith
June Gunckel
Bohemian Song	Low
Russian Hymn	Low
Frank Stuppel
Hallowe'en
A surprise
Aileen Krumbach
Hunting Song	Low
Grace Vaughan
The Scarecrow	Erb
A Moonlight Dance	Bently
Frank Stuppel
Our Conquering Hero	Johnson
Agnes Gloden and Aileen Krumbach
The Jugglers	Kern
Ballade	Burgmuller
Minuet	Beethoven
Northern Song	Schumann
June Gunckel
The Chase	Burgmuller
A Bird's Nest	Schmoll
Winter	Wright
Agnes Gloden
Dance Intermezzo	Beer
The Royal Welch Fusillers	Sousa
To the Front	Clark
Hungarian Dance	Brahms
Aileen Krumbach
The Night Wind	Griffin
Grace Vaughan
Song of the Plowman	Barnes
Eventide Reverie	Mero
The Legend	Ketterer
Meditation	Morisson
Aileen Krumbach

Primary Children Enjoy Party Saturday

The children of the Primary department of the Presbyterian church school enjoyed a very delightful party in the assembly room of the church on Saturday afternoon.

Forty-five children attended. The pupils of the 2nd and 3rd grades acted as hosts and it was a welcome party for the 1st grade and all other new pupils.

The room was gay with Hallowe'en decorations.

An added feature of the occasion was the large birthday cake sent by Mrs. Ramsdell in honor of her daughter Catherine's seventh birthday anniversary.

The teachers in charge of the department who arranged the party include Miss Viola Rockenbach, Miss Ruth Bolt, Mrs. A. R. Letson, Mrs. W. Cruickhsank and Mrs. W. Koebelin.

Dr. C. Johnston Davis Weds Dorothy Sugden

Mrs. Charles Edward Sugden, formerly of Winnipeg, Canada, announces the marriage of her daughter Dr. Dorothy Sugden to Dr. Charles Johnston Davis of Deerfield, Ill., on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 23, 1930, which took place at the home of the brides mother in Evanston.

Rev. Mark J. Andrews of the First Presbyterian church of Deerfield read the service.

Following the ceremony Dr. Davis and his bride departed for St. Louis, Mo.