Deerpath Theatre to Offer Notable Films During Coming Week

Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, offers another galaxy of fine talking pictures for the ensuing week, including such headliners are Rube Goldberg's "Soup to Nuts," the Marx Brothers in "Animal Crackers" and that great success, "Journey's End." The daily program is scheduled as follows:

Friday, Nov. 7—Bert Lytell and Patsy Ruth Miller in "Last of the Lone Wolf," a delightful mystery drama, and an added feature is Count Byron Khun De Prorok, in a captivating epic, "Lost Gods."

Saturday, Nov. 8 (matinee and evening)—Rube Goldberg's all-laughing movietone farce, "Soup to Nuts," with Ted Healy, Frances McCoy, Stanley Smith and Charles Winniger.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 9, 10, and 11—The Marx Brothers in "Animal Crackers"; Groucho, Harpo, Chico and Zeppo in the funniest hit on earth, is the way advanced reports describe this comedy feature, with Lillian Roth, laughter's leading lady, and a prize cast.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 12, 13 and 14—"Journey's End," acclaimed a truly great talking picture, a drama not of heroes or cowards, but of men, a powerful, poignant, passionate portrait of the gallantry, courage and nobility of human character. Colin Clive, Ian MacLaren, David Manners, Anthony Bushell, Billy Bevan, Charles Gerrard, Thomas Whiteley, Robert A. Dair, Jack Pitcairn, Warner Klinger form the great cast.

Saturday, Nov. 15 (matinee and night)—"Africa Speaks," said to be the strangest romance ever filmed.
