Scout Executive's Column

He was scarce over 12 years of age and the intense pain had blanched all color from his cheeks. He had been brought into one of the hospitals of Kansas City for an emergency operation. There was no time for delay. He was rushed to the anesthetic room. The nurse and interne administering the ether marveled at his unusual fortitude with which he met this trying ordeal.

In the operating room the nurse noticed during the operation that his right hand was tightly clinched. The operation completed she called the attention of the interne to this. It was all he could do to unclinch the lad's fist and he found only a little wad of paper. From force of habit he unrolled it and spread it out before throwing it aside. These words, the tenth Scout law, were written on it in a boyish scrawl, "A Scout is Brave."

SCOUTS SLEEP UNDER THE STARS

At the Friday night meeting of Troop 33 at the Lincoln school we had our regular drill, then a council and finally played games. One of them was like "Pom-Pom-pull-away." Some scouts brought footballs so we had pretty good fun. We planned for an overnight hike which was held Saturday night. It was just the night for camping — so warm and bright that we did not want to sleep in tents, but slept right out under the stars.

Most of the scouts passed tests, and we all studied the stars at night. Mr. McLellan walked out to visit us and told us stories around the campfire. We returned Sunday morning about 8:45.

Those who went on this trip were: Jim Anderson, John Seyfarth, George McLellan, Kerwyn Smith, Roderick Smith, Bob Austin, Allen Benson, Lyman Benson and the scoutmaster.—Kerwyn Smith, troop reporter, Troop 33, Lincoln school, Highland Park.

TRAINING COURSES NOW UNDER WAY

The elementary and standard training courses for scout leaders got underway last Monday and Wednesday respectively Nov. 3 and 5. These courses are to be held on the first Monday and Wednesday of the month.

At both sessions last week the attendance was good but courses will continue to grow until there are about 30 or 40 men in each.

The Wednesday night course had the privilege of hearing Mr. Allan L. Carpenter, educational director of the Chicago council of Boy Scouts, talk on the "Nature of the Boy." Both sessions are organized like a regular troop, the method "learning by doing." Any father, scouter or friend is invited to enroll for these courses, the next to be held Dec. 1 and 3.

The following men enrolled in the first sessions: Elementary course — Messrs. George Bersch, Wilmette; Milton Cornelius, Winnetka; Karl D. King Jr., Wilmette; Victor Joyce, Wilmette; Harry Stannard, Glencoe; Homer Cazal, Deerfield; Lowell Mueller, Northbrook; and Richard Suess, Glencoe.

Standard (advanced) course: Messrs. C. Roy Terry, Winnetka; Bob Mehren, Winnetka; Dr. S. Hedgcock, Glencoe; Frank Wilson, J. C. Blaylock, Wilmette; Kenneth Bennet, W. Hill, H. R. Smith, A. D. Brush, John Udell, Ralph Pratt, Highland Park; V. Walecka; L. Young, Lloyd Moon, M. O'Flaherty, Highwood; Raymond Danielson, Glenview; C. Booker, Tom Atteridge, Lake Forest; R. Dobbins, John Huhn, James Russell, Deerfield; Gordon Ray, Robert Rouse, Diamond lake.

SWIMMING STARTS AGAIN ON SATURDAY

The regular swimming classes at Deerfield-Shields high school tank for scout test passing and instruction will be continued this Saturday, Nov. 15 after a two weeks halt due to repairs in the tank. These classes are free to all scouts and all are welcome and urged to come to pass their test. Mr. Carl McCanus, American Red Cross examiner, Dick Wichman, senior Red Cross life saver, and Calvin Gartley, also senior Red Cross life saver, are the instructors in the courses. Check this following time schedule so that you will come at the right time.

9 to 10 a. m.—Life merit badge test. 10 to 10:30—Swimming merit badge test. 10:30 to 11—First class test, 50 yards.

SECOND CUB PACK REGISTERS

The second Cub pack to register on the North Shore Area council was awarded their charter this week as Cub Pack No. 6 at the North Shore Methodist church of Glencoe. Rev. Harold Case is the cub master with Messrs. M. P. Below, W. L. Wheeler and James R. Preston as committeemen. The new Cubs are Dan Preston, Ethan Weld, Geo. Hilgendorf, Roderick Preston, Erwin Moeller, Philip Cunningham, Richard Cowan, Helmit Boxnik, Howard Keefe, Charles Kuhn, Melvin Kahn. The Cub programs are for boys 9, 10, and 11 years old. Although sponsored by the Boy Scouts of America, the program is entirely different from the Boy Scout program. The only other registered Pack is No. 60 of Kenilworth. Several others are in the progress of organization.

SCOUTS ENJOY ALL-DAY HIKE

Five scouts of Troop 48, Lake Forest took an all day hike Sunday, Nov. 9. We left about 9:30 and hiked out to the Desplaine's river near Libertyville where we stopped to cook our dinner. Some of the fellows explored the surrounding country after dinner but decided that it was too civilized for real exploring. We returned home along the Rockland road and reached Lake Forest about 5 o'clock.

TROOP 31 PLANS TO HELP NEEDY

Plans to help the unemployed were discussed last Thursday night by Troop 31 of Highland Park. Mr. Hill has proposed that each scout sell bird houses obtained from a local manufacturer who is an expert at building them. The proceeds of the selling of these will go to our unemployment fund.—Louis Schultz, Troop 31, reporter, Elm Place school.

SHOW CAMP MOVIES AT ARDEN SHORE

Sunday evening Nov. 9 the scouts of Arden Shore Troop 44 had the enjoyment of seeing the movies of Camp Makajawan the North Shore Area council Boy Scout camp. Everyone of the three reels brought thrills and happy thoughts at the joys of camping. Sam Rose the scout who was chosen to represent Arden Shore at camp was there to see the movies. The whole troop gave same a good cheer as they saw him in the movies eating watermelon on watermelon days at camp. This troop has registered many new scouts this fall. The list is as follows: Jack Beckovsky, Veneslaus Borkowski, Nathan Born, Mickey Bozzi, Andrew Buraczuski, Mike Burica, Miles Cech, Tom Conpropat, Edward Douglass, Mike Dvort, Robert Goode, Hans Gruber, Vernon Hayes, Casmer Jarsen, Joseph Justy, James Materki, George Meyers, Charles Nordgren, Joe Podwiki, John Policheri, Max Rosenthal, Robert Siegel, Wm. Sipler, Joseph Szpiech, Edward Trelka, James Tynan, Walter Zawolski, Alex Zemancek.

NEW SCOUTS ARE ENROLLED

The North Shore Area council welcomes the new scouts which are continually registering in the various troops. Among the latest group we find an Eagle scout, Arthur Poinier, who is transferring from Indianapolis to Troop 34, Highland Park. The complete list is as follows:

Bill Shearer, Troop 1, Wilmette; John Adams, Troop 2, Wilmette; Arthur Flood, Troop 2, Wilmette; Jerry Born, Stuart Edmonds, Theo. Field, Biglow Haley, Elmer Stone, Troop 4, Wilmette; Wm. Murray, James Lightbody, Larry Fisher, Francis Gross, Troop 22, Glencoe; Robert Maxwell, transferred from Troop 15 to Troop 23, Glencoe; Bobby Hoza, Troop 24, Hubbard Woods; Arthur Poinier, Eagle scout, transferred from Indianapolis, Ind., to Troop 34, Highland Park; J. P. Peabody, Troop 34, Highland Park; Edward Markowitz, Troop 37, Highwood; Hugh Peterson, transferred from Troop 270, Detroit, Michigan to Troop 37, Highwood; Daniel Teberg, Troop 38, Highland Park;

Edgar Engle, Troop 45, Lake Forest; Teddy Monahan, Troop 45, Lake Forest; Frank Barngrover, Troop 54, Half Day.

NEW LEADERS ARE ENLISTED

Men of high character are continually choosing scouting as their avocation and giving of their time and effort for their betterment of boyhood by serving as active leaders in the movement. The North Shore Area council welcomes and congratulates these men listed below who have recently registered in these positions:

Alan Hoagland, Mate Sea Scout Ship, No. 29, Kenilworth, Robert F. Walker, scoutmaster Troop 35, Ravinia; Gordon M. Jones, skipper Sea Scout Ship No. 39, Highland Park; Robert Enos and Thomas A. Connors, Merit Badge counselors, Lake Forest; Ralph W. Pratt, A.S.M., Troop 34, Highland Park, 5 year veteran; Harold G. Boltz, field executive North Shore Area council, 5 year veteran; Frank A. Wilson, registered as S. M. of Troop 2, Wilmette, was troop committee chairman; Luther H. Barber, member of troop committee of Troop N. William, Erwin P. Snyder;—see 16, Winnetka; Herebert Sieck, Troop 19, Winnetka; Lewis N. William, Troop 20, Winnetka; Erwin P. Snyder, Troop 20, Winnetka.

News of Troop 35

Last Friday night at Troop 35, Ravinia, Mr. Walker, the new scoutmaster said that to the first patrol that has every boy in uniform for two scout meetings in succession he would give a supper. The camp was divided into three patrols. After the patrols were all together Mr. Walker had two sides and we played a game for a few minutes. Mr. Walker and Mr. Copp are two of the men that help the troop along. They are liked by the boys of the troop very much, and we are progressing rapidly. — Charles Zahn, Troop 35, reporter, Ravinia school.

Troop 36 News

The last regular meeting of Troop 36 was held at St. James parish hall on Monday, Nov. 3. Regular business was taken care of. Later in the meeting a first aid contest was held. Scoutmaster O'Flaherty asked a question on what would you do to stop the flow of blood—from a deep cut, flowing badly on the left lower cheek. One of the boys humorously demonstrated by tying a trounique around the patient's neck. The Highwood Court of Honor will be here soon, says the information for the scoutmaster.—Scout Ambrose Cantagallo, Troop 36, St. James parish, H. W.

New Scouts in Troop 61

The new boys have joined Troop 61, Northbrook: William Nelson, former scout in White Cloud, Michigan and Billy Scott a new tenderfoot. Come on fellows do your best; We're all with you.
