

Deerpath Theatre Is Offering Fine Program; "Africa Speaks," Leader

Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, offers another notable series of fine pictures during the coming week, including a continuous performance on Saturday of this week, from 2 to 11:10 p.m. of that unique and amazing picture of African jungle life, "Africa Speaks." On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the "Two Black Crows," Moran and Mack, appear in "Anybody's War." The other features of the week are equally attractive. The schedule follows:

Friday, Nov. 14—Last showing of "Journey's End."

Saturday, Nov. 15 (continuous 2 to 11 p.m.; five performances)—"Africa Speaks," said to be the most important and realistic film of its kind ever made and the most thrilling camera story of exploration in the heart of the dark continent ever presented anywhere.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 16-18—The "Two Black Crows," Moran and Mack in "Anybody's War," with Neil Hamilton and Joan Peers. A hilarious comedy feature by the comedy dialogue of the "Two Black Crows."

Wednesday, Nov. 19, one day only—Bebe Daniels and Lowell Sherman in "Lawful Larceny," with Olive Tell, Kenneth Thompson, Purnell Pratt, Bert Roach. Described as a "Drama to thrill the hearts of a world of women. A woman thwarted turns on her enemies and fights back with every weapon God gave her."

Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20—Zane Grey's "Last of the Duanes," a great outdoor romance, with George O'Brien, Lucille Browne, Myrna Loy and Walter McGrail. Meet Buck Duane, the last of his fiery line.

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Report on Current Movies Given

The following pictures have been reviewed through the courtesy of the Association of Motion Picture Producers by the D. A. R. reviewing committee in Hollywood, Calif.

"Animal Crackers." Lively entertainment by the four Marx Brothers. Piano and harp playing are very good, and the clowning will make good entertainment for the entire family, providing they enjoy this kind of a picture. A good picture for junior matinees.

"Africa Speaks"—Colorado-African expedition, silent with description. A very fine travelogue through Africa's wildest territory, starting from the mouth of the Niger river. Pictures of a plague of locusts; or herds of rhinoceros; flamingoes, etc. A thrilling picture of adventure. Family. Junior matinee.

"Three Faces East"—Good war-spy story with English girl posing as German spy. Free from objectional scenes with much of thrill and suspense. Family.

"Anybody's War"—Clean and amusing burlesque war film. Full of wholesome nonsense about life in the trenches as Moran and Mack would live it. Amusing and entertaining for the whole family.

No information available about "Men in the North," but the regular weekly serial "The Indians Are Coming" will unroll its third episode at the Saturday matinee.

This is the time of the year when the school boys in the country are going nutting, and it is also the time of year when the politicians over the country have been going nutty.
