Man Hurt Nov. 5 Near Libertyville Is Dead

William Peterson, 17 years old, of 4818 N. Mead avenue, Chicago died Nov. 12 in the Rogers park hospital in Chicago from injuries he received Nov. 5 near Libertyville when his automobile crashed into a fence.

Peterson, as near as the county highway police could learn at the time, lost control of his machine as he was driving south on Milwaukee avenue near Libertyville, with the result that it swayed into a ditch and then against a fence.

The injured man, whose skull was fractured, was rushed to Chicago by motorists and at first, although he was unconscious, it was believed that he would live.

Former H. P. Girl Is Manager of Dress Shop

Mrs. Alfred Pittman, formerly Miss Beatrice Thayer of Highland Park, is now manager of the Elise A. Runyan Dress Shop at 1507 Chicago avenue, Evanston. Mrs. Pittman has had wide experience in this line, having been for years employed in similar work with Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., in Chicago, and her patrons are assured the very best of merchandise and service.
