

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield Locals

The Ladies Get-Together club meet at the home of Mrs. Hicks on Tuesday afternoon at her apartment on Waukegan road.

Miss Clara Ender will be hostess to her bridge club at the Deerfield avenue Tea Room on Thursday afternoon.

The November meeting of the Tri C society will be held at the home of Miss Mathilda Borchardt, Highland Park on Thursday evening.

Forty-eight children attended a party in the Holy Cross parish hall on Saturday afternoon. Games and refreshments were enjoyed and many of the children were the recipients of attractive prizes.

Miss Loretta Heman will open the cafe on Waukegan road formerly occupied by C. Fehr on Saturday, Nov. 22.

Eva Lange, who makes her home with her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Clavey in Highland Park was given a pleasant surprise party on Saturday evening in celebration of her birthday anniversary by a group of friends from Deerfield, Highland Park and Northbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Lundeen and daughter Florence of Chicago were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson on Sunday.

The Independent Social club will be entertained by Mrs. Walter Hoffman at her home on 1111 Ridge road, West Lake Forest on Wednesday afternoon, December 3 at 2 o'clock.

The Hoffman family have recently moved from the County Line road to West Lake Forest.

Mrs. Minnie Willman and daughter Luella spent Sunday at White Fish Bay, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Olson entertained a group of friends from Chicago on Sunday in honor of Mr. Olson's birthday anniversary.

Christ Willman, who is a past master of Glenview lodge and past patron of Glenview O. E. S., participated in the ceremonies at the Deerfield O. E. S. chapter on Thursday evening, Nov. 6.

"Drop Kick" featuring Richard Earthlemess also a Felix comedy will be shown at the movies in the Deerfield school auditorium on Friday evening, November 21.

Monday morning, November 24 at 7:30 o'clock, the second annual mass will be said for the Rev. W. J. Ryan deceased pastor of the Holy Cross church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson were hosts at a bridge party at their home on Chestnut street Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Tennerman had as their dinner guests on last Wednesday Miss Josephine Woodman and Miss Eugenia Watier. Miss Woodman departed on Saturday to spend the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenke of Waukegan and Mrs. Mary Lee of Blue Island spent Sunday at the Peter Petersen home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress, Richard Kress and Miss Gertrude Martin were guests at the W. A. Whiting home in Irving Park on Tuesday.

On Sunday, November 23, each member of the Presbyterian church school will bring a gift of fruit, vegetables, canned goods, provisions of any kind, which will be packed and delivered to the Olivet Institute for Thanksgiving.

Paul Hanner had his tonsils removed at the Waukegan hospital last week.

Mrs. Jennie Wilson is visiting relatives in Libertyville.

The Condon family left last week for Jacksonville, Florida.

After five weeks in the Highland Park hospital with a broken leg and arm, Charles Burnett was able to return to his home last week.

Plans have been made to take members of the Girls Reserve on an all day educational tour of Chicago, Saturday, Nov. 22. A parlor bus has been chartered which will leave the Y. W. C. A. in Highland Park at 9 a.m. They expect to visit Memorial hospital, Maxwell street, Hull House and other places of interest.

Misses Lulu and Edna Behrens of Highland Park were dinner guests at the C. T. Anderson home on Friday.

John Fritsch of Northfield visited his brother, James Fritsch, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood of Rosemary terrace entertained at a dinner on Friday evening.

Miss Marian Goldberg of Kenosha, Wis., was a guest of Miss Jean Brand on Saturday.

Mr. Christ Willman was given a surprise party at his home on Saturday evening in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Miss Jean Brand entertained eight guests at luncheon on Saturday afternoon after which they attended the Deerfield-New Trier football game.

Deerfield Business Men's Bowling League

Standing for week ending Friday, November 14.

Reliable Garage	19	8
Notz Hardware	17	10
Deerfield News Agency	15	12
Antes Sign	12	15
Kottraseh Florists	10	17
Shapiro's Grocery	8	19

P. T. A. to Sponsor Card Party Saturday

The Finance committee of the Deerfield P. T. A. will sponsor a card party in the school auditorium on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22.

There will be a door prize, also a prize for each table of bridge, five hundred or bunco.

It is the plan of the committee to afford an opportunity for the mothers and teachers to become acquainted. In doing so, the mothers are requested to visit the room of their child or children and register.

A prize is being offered to the room having the largest number registering. Mrs. C. C. Kapschull is chairman of arrangements and will be assisted by Mrs. C. W. Boyle, who is in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Alex Willman the tickets. Mrs. J. C. Griswold, prizes; Mrs. Harry Muhlke, tables and chairs; Mrs. Frank W. Russo and Mrs. Alex Willman, tea tables; hostesses, Mrs. Edwin Wood and Mrs. C. E. Piper. Mrs. Johnson will have charge of the 500 tables.

Hold Indoor Carnival Next Monday Night

At a meeting of the Holy Name society of the Holy Cross Catholic church held on Monday evening, plans were completed for the indoor carnival which will be staged on Monday evening Nov. 24 in the parish hall.

Before planning your Thanksgiving menu, a visit to this affair may prove worth while, as 15 large beautiful turkeys will be given away and you may be among the recipients.

There will be many entertaining features and a large assortment of prizes awarded.

The door prize; five dollars in gold should be enough to attract anyone.

An evening of continual fun and frolic is assured, reserve the date and plan to attend.

Teachers and Officers to Meet November 24

The teachers and officers of the beginners and primary departments of the St. Paul Evangelical, Bethlehem Evangelical and Presbyterian churches will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the Bethlehem church on Monday evening, Nov. 24.

There will be a program which has been arranged by a member of each of the church schools.

Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok will lead the devotional service. Miss Irene Rockenbach will lead the discussion covering plans for Thanksgiving and Christmas, story telling, handwork, worship, music, story telling as well as teaching methods in general.

Each school will have for examination posters, pictures and other work done by the children.

A social hour with refreshments will follow.

Deerpath Theatre Has Splendid Program for Ensuing Week; the List

Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, is offering another splendid series of feature talking pictures for the ensuing week, including some of the best current attractions in the motion picture world. The list follows:

Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20 and 21—Zane Grey's "Last of the Duanes," great outdoor romance with George O'Brien, Lucille Brown, Myrna Loy and Walter McGrail. Meet Buck Duane, the last of his fiery line and all the other splendid characters in this thrilling picture.

Saturday, matinee and evening, Nov. 22—Eddie Quillan in "Night Work," with Sally Starr and Frances Upton. Quillan is said to be a brilliant comedian, and he appears in one of the most unusual fun stories ever seen on the screen.

Sunday and Monday, Nov. 23 and 24—"Follow Through" with Charles Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll. A golf story with plenty of pretty girls and stirring action; all in technicolor. Cast said to be greatest bunch of laugh makers and love makers ever seen on the screen.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 25 and 26—"Little Accident" with Anita Page and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and a splendid cast, including Roscoe Karns, Zasu Pitts, Sally Bland and others.

Thursday and Friday, Nov. 27 and 28—Thanksgiving day continuous show, 2 to 11 p. m.—"The Sea God" with Richard Arlen, Fay Wray. An unusual story of a deep sea diver's experiences in the cannibal islands.

Shells Valued at $50 Taken from Gun Club

The Deerfield Gun club was broken into last week and about fifty dollars worth of shells were stolen. Whoever stole the trap several weeks previous, probably returned to get the shells. The shells are of a special make, which the Hunter's Sport Shop ordered and a careful watch is being kept in this vicinity for anyone using that particular make of shell.

Auxiliary Submits Hospital Report

Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb, chairman of the Rehabilitation committee of the Deerfield unit American Legion auxiliary submitted the following report at a recent meeting of the unit:

Mending at Vet's hospital North Chgo.	$ 9.00
Second hand clothing	74.70
Candy sent to hospital	.60
Fruit sent to hospital	.90
55 glasses of jelly	19.25
Making of total of	104.45

Give Dance Nov. 29

The Happy Four will sponsor a dance at the Masonic temple on Saturday evening Nov. 29.

The Bud Lotch orchestra will furnish the music.

The public is cordially invited to attend.