

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Mothers' Club

The committee in charge of the program and the officers of the Mothers' club had a real surprise treat in store for the members and guests of the club at the regular monthly meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening, Nov. 11. A delicious supper was served, 67 were present. Members of the Brand's orchestra again entertained them with a delightful varied musical program. Mr. Schneider talked to the mothers, said there was no question but what it was the mother who ruled the world. The child is first trained by the mother in the home. Mr. Schneider led in group singing, being Armistice Day several patriotic songs were sung. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 9.

The conducted Chicago educational tours were presented. The Mothers' club have decided on Thursday, Nov. 20, leaving Highland Park at one o'clock at the Y. W. C. A., going and returning by motor coach. Thirty have signed up.

Pi Delta's

Pi Delta's are having a supper meeting at the Y. W. C. A. tonight (Thursday), at 6:30. Mrs. E. J. Ginter and a committee of girls from Deerfield are in charge. It is a business meeting.

Educational Program

Every class included in the Y. W. C. A. educational program is well attended and much interest is shown by those attending. Mrs. Lawrence E. Meyer is directing the Glee club, accompanist, Mrs. Goodwin Garst. The Glee club is working on several beautiful numbers. The dramatic class, directed by Edna Wood Miller, are now starting on a play. Mrs. Miller plans to keep all those in the class doing something. They are also working on some Bible dramatization to be given at some of the Sunday afternoon programs. There are 52 in the tap and ballroom class, instructed by Mildred Haessler. Celia Craig's sewing class on Thursday, 7:30 to 8:30 was another well attended class. Mrs. Craig is not starting with the fundamentals of sewing, but plans to help you help yourself. Sewing is something we all need now, as the dress today must fit.

Sunday Afternoon Teas

Mrs. W. A. Alexander lead the world fellowship program at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Following this, members of the Mothers' club were hostesses at an informal tea. This Sunday, Mrs. John Horn will speak on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Horn's talks are always interesting. Members of the Pi Delta club will serve tea. These meetings have been well attended. The public is most welcome.

G. R. News

Remember! G. R.'s the bus for the educational tour leaves next Saturday, Nov. 22 at 9 o'clock. Not three minutes after nine.

A bus has been chartered for thirty G. R.'s next Saturday.

It is hoped there will be enough G. R.'s for two buses. Make your reservations at once.

Every G. R. will bring their own lunch. Arrangements will be made for each girl to buy milk or cocoa-milk on the bus.

Such fun! A picnic on a bus for G. R.'s.

The bus leaves the Y. W. C. A. at nine a. m. and will return at five o'clock.

A splash was heard by several girls last Saturday morning. The pool was fine as ever.

No swimming next Saturday morning on account of the G. R.'s educational tour.

The Cubs Jr. had a very enjoyable meeting. Miss Kendall accompanied this group to Central park, where games were played.

The L L met Tuesday for their second meeting of this year. Officers were elected: President, Dorothy Norkett; vice-president, Elinor Goldstead; secretary, Edna Oleson.

Christmas suggestions were talked about and tap dancing was started in this school.

Makios held their meeting last Wednesday.

Rho Gamme Rho G. R.'s held their weekly meeting Thursday at the Ravinia school. Two new members added their names to the group roll.

Rinke Dink's is the name that was chosen by the Cubs Sr. for their new name. From now on this group will be called Rinke Dinks. Out of twelve names suggested, this had the majority of votes.

Bernice Connely was elected the new secretary. The old secretary, Anna Repholz joined the L L last Tuesday.

The Rinke Dinks hold their meetings Friday evenings from 7 to 8:30. Every girl is asked to be home by 9 o'clock.

Tap dancing and stunts was enjoyed by all. Nursery rhymes were put in pantomime form and were displayed very nicely by the four different groups.

One hundred fifty-eight G. R.'s met last week for their weekly meetings. Keep the good work up girls. We want the G. R. spirit to fly high all year. Don't we G. R.'s?

Past Masters Guests at Meeting Saturday

A. O. Fay lodge No. 676, A. F. & A. M. will hold a reception to its Past Masters, Saturday, Nov. 22. Lodge will open on the third degree at one o'clock and dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. The work in the evening will be conducted by the past masters.

New Jolson Film Is Racy Comedy of Racing Life

"Big Boy," the Al Jolson play New York paid $6.60 to see will be shown at the Alcyon theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, with Al Jolson in the starring role.

Because Jolson is always at his best when he does not have to adhere to set lines and action, Warner Bros. have given him free rein to be as spontaneous and original as he pleases. The result is a typical Jolson entertainment with stories and jokes told only as Jolson can tell them and songs sung only as Jolson can sing them. Bearing his lucky character name, Gus, therefore, and playing the role of a colored jockey, Jolson once more fascinates his audience as he did in the stage play which ran throughout the country for three years.

The setting of the story is the Kentucky Blue Grass country, and the most thrilling sequence is the famous sporting event, the Kentucky Derby. The racing scenes are all authentic. It is interesting to know also that a complete replica of an old southern mansion with stables, wide lawns, and quarters for a retinue of colored retainers, was built in the center of the vast Busch gardens of Pasadena, one of the show places of the Pacific coast. Here only can be found the great expanse of lawn familiarly known as "Kentucky Blue Grass." Here only is the scenery so similar to that found in the neighborhood of Louisville, Kentucky.

Claudia Dell, leading lady of the picture, was chosen from a large number of actresses available for the part because of her natural Southern accent. Others in the cast are Louise Closser Hale, Lloyd Hughes, Eddie Phillips, Lew Harvey, Franklin Batie, who played the same role in the original play with Mr. Jolson, and John Harron.

Alan Crosland who directed Jolson in his first picture, "The Jazz Singer," also directed "Big Boy."

Golf supplies the motivation for "Love in the Rough," in which Robert Montgomery is featured. The musical comedy, directed by Charles F. (Chuck) Reisner, will open Sunday at the Alcyon theatre, with the cast including Dorothy Jordan, Benny Rubin, Dorothy McNulty and J. C. Nugent.

Many Attend Closing Lecture by Mrs. Ethel C. Brazelton Wednesday

A large and enthusiastic group greeted Mrs. Ethel Colson Brazelton on Wednesday morning in her closing lecture on Current Events at the Highland Park Woman's club. Mrs. Brazelton gave a resume of world conditions and reviewed two most interesting books—"Success" by Leon Feuchtwang, and "The Bitter Tea of General Yen."

Club members and friends have supported the course unusually well—the attendance and interest have materially increased in each of the six lectures.

This course, sponsored by the education committee, is pronounced the most successful of its kind ever given by the club.
