Highland Park Methodist Church

North Ave. at Laretta Place
Rev. F. D. Hopkins, Minister

Last week Friday, when the redecorating of our church was on the eve of completion and arrangements were made for an attractive reopening service on last Sunday morning, it was discovered that the oil burning heater of the church had got out of order and the church was on fire. The fire, a small one, was quickly extinguished, but the entire church and everything in it was covered with soot and smoke and the new decorating ruined. It was a severe blow to our church people and to Mr. Herman Juhrend, the decorator and those who had so loyally assisted him in the work. However, there was a bright side to the picture, for when the call was made for the insurance adjuster to come, Mr. H. L. Glidden, of Highland Park, proved to be in charge of this department of work and immediately inspected the church and made an adjustment which covered all damage and made it possible for the church to put everything in shape without financial loss. The worst feature is that it will take about two weeks to redecorate and clean the church and its contents from the soot and smoke. The damage amounted to about $600.

Arrangements were made at once to hold Sunday school and church service elsewhere and the manager of the movie house on Waukegan avenue at once offered the use of his auditorium, which was accepted and Sunday school was held there with a very fair attendance. The church service, however, was held in the parsonage.
