RE-ELECT SIMONS C. OF C. PRESIDENT

H. F. Kelley Renamed Vice-Pres. Also; New Directors; Bond Issue Discussed

J. W. Simons was re-elected president of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce at the regular November meeting Tuesday evening, and H. F. Kelley was re-elected vice-president. New directors elected for two years are James Collins, J. B. Garnett and Gregory Sheahen.

Directors who have yet a year of their two-year term to serve are C. P. Hunter, L. B. Sinclair and R. W. Pease. Outgoing directors are C. H. Witt, Ernest West and Edward Greenwald.

The meeting was attended by 75 members, who enjoyed a splendid dinner at the Green Tea Pot prior to field. the business session.

Discuss Bond Issue Plan

Mr. John T. Oliver, president of the North Shore Sanitary District, delivered an interesting message on the proposed $1,200,000 Bond Issue of that organization relative to the construction of new and additions to the old sewage disposal plants. This proposed issue is to be voted on at a special election, Dec. 20, 1930.

Or. Oliver was supported in his address by A. F. Beaubien, secretary of the North Shore Sanitary District; Alfred W. Stern, Allen I. Wolff and K. E. Wagner of the Ravinia Civic Commission; R. P. Sherer and R. T. (Continued on page 52)

John B. Maling Talks to D. A. R. Chapter at Home of Mrs. Phelps

John B. Maling will address the members of the North Shore chapter of the D. A. R. this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. R. Phelps, 275 Prospect avenue.

Mr. Maling has presented his thoughts and views on the "Origin and Effects of Freak and Class Leg- Mrs. Rowena Bennett islation" to more than 400 audiences, scattered from coast to coast during the last five years.

The object of this voluntary work is to arouse in the minds and hearts of our people a deeper appreciation of a greater respect for, and perhaps a better understanding of the constitution and government of our United States.

Mr. Maling was associated as an executive with the Moffat Interests Moffat railroad through the Rocky with her readings. Mountains. In this connection he now completed is the second longest many times. lars.

the last five years, Mr. Maling has pany Mrs. Frank Horn of Ravinia ter, Mrs. Robert Shanley. The foldevoted his efforts to inducing busi- who will sing these numbers. ness and professional men as well as The social committee, with its assist Miss Jane: Winifred Wheeler, women to interest themselves in gov- usual efficiency, has arranged for a Sarah Wood, Eleanor Roberts, Ann them to a complete realization of the and it is hoped that many will take Bouscaren, Ann Ashcraft, Mary Macship.

Charity Football Game Last Sunday Big Event; Results in 7 to 7 Tie

The charity football game played last Sunday between the Deerfield A. C. team and the Highland Park News Flashes was one of the best seen here this season, resulting in a tie score of 7 to 7. Both teams played a good tercepted pass.

ed to $180.50, according to reports of possibly could, and they should be Royal Arcanum officials, who spon- considered now. sored the affair. Had the game been | With a dollar purchasing about 35 played on an enclosed field undoubt- per cent more than it could a year been larger. The Royal Arcanum ready is under way, and everybody wishes to thank the friends who con- seems intent on buying early and gettributed to the success of the game, ting better selections of merchandise.

if any present were not approached prices are reasonable. They are adto contribute, their contribution un- vantageously displayed, and plenty doubtedly will be gladly received by of sales people are ready to attend wishes especially to express appre- are offering for the holiday trade. ciation to the following: the Park board, which through Edw. M. Laing granted use of the field and also for setting up the goal posts; Mr. Wallie fore in order to encourage home buy-McIlvaine, Mr. Zipoy and Mr. Einbecker, who were officials at the game; Drs. Rossiter and Grady, who volunteered services in case of injuries to the players, the friends who helped sell tickets, the Antes Sign Co. for two signs, Charles P. Hunter who furnished the football at wholesale, the Highland Park Press and Highland Park News for necessary printing and publicity given gratis, the police department for co-operation and assistance; the Deerfield team for their display of sportsmanship in coming to Highland Park to play the game; the high school through Mr. Ball for use of markers, marking machine, etc.

to Present Readings at West Ridge Club

The West Ridge Community club has long looked forward to the time when they might have Rowena Bastin Bennett for an evening's program. This time has finally arrived and it is with great pleasure that they invite their members and friends to be present Saturday evening, Dec. in Colorado in building the famous 13, when Mrs. Bennett will entertain

Everyone is familiar with Mrs. was responsible for much of the pio- Bennett's charming poems and these Jane Martin Will neer work which resulted in the bor- alone would make an interesting eveing of the Moffat tunnel through ning but when given by the writer James Peak. This great construction herself, the pleasure is increased ernmental affairs and to awaken delightful hour to follow the program Wyles, Marguerite Watson, Evelyn responsibilities of American citizen- advantage of this opportunity to en- Caughey, Lucy Jacobs, Leila Withers, jey an evening of real pleasure.

Help to Relieve Local Conditions by Purchasing from Home Merchants

Buy at home this holiday season game, but the Deerfield eleven seemed and help drive out Old Man Depresto have the edge, especially toward sion should be the slogan of local the end of the battle. The News Flash- shoppers as they set out to seek es made their score through an in- Christmas gifts. The local merchants have accommodated home people all The proceeds of the game amount- through the year in every way they edly the return financially would have ago, the holiday shopping rush al-

which was held on the Lincoln Park | And the local merchants are prepared as never before. Their Christ-The game was largely attended, and mas stocks are full and complete, and the Social Service committee, if they to the wants of all comers. Visit the care to send it in. local stores as early as possible and The Royal Arcanum committee see the innumerable fine values they

Stocks Are Complete

Merchants this year are carrying more elaborate stocks than ever be-(Continued on page 18)

Practice Recital For Music Pupils

The first practice recital and criticism class of the season, given by less advanced pupils of the piano class of. Miss Frances Biederstadt was conducted in the assembly hall of the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon. Ear work was demonstrated, and a point in technic illustrated and discussed. The following program was played for criticism:

March of the Wee Folk Doris Ott	Gaynor
The Big Clock	Blake
Sheep in the Meadow
Three Melodies	Blake
Rosemary Russo
Big Bass Singer
Mauh of the Shadows	Barth
Elf and Fairy Cynthia Anne Walker	Bentley
Cheerfulness Walton Reeds	Rowe
Wood Nymph's Harp
Hungarian Song
Queen of Sheba March
Japanese Sunset	Deppen

Make Debut Dec. 13

Miss Jane Martin, daughter of Mr. tunnel in America, being seven and Bernice Benson Bentley, a friend and Mrs. James L. Martin of Hazel one half miles long, and represent of Mrs. Bennett's, has arranged avenue, will make her debut Saturing an investment of ten million dol- musical settings for many of her day at a tea to be held at her parents' poems and she will be present Sat- home from four to seven o'clock. Mrs. Retired from active business for urday evening when she will accom- Martin will be assisted by her daughlowing debuntantes of this season will Virginia Waller and Shirley McKay.

Service

We also have some exceptional used car value,

Highland Park Auburn Company 505 Elm Place Highland Park, Illinois Phone H. P. 2830