Postmaster Gives Data For Mailing of Gifts

To the post office patrons of Highland Park:

There will be no mail delivery on Christmas day, Shop and mail now for Christmas; wrap parcels securely; address mail plainly on one side only—include street and number; place your own name and address on the upper left hand corner on all mail. Mail may be marked "not to be opened until Christmas," to assure the prompt delivery of your parcels and cards, same must be mailed sufficiently early to reach office of destination not later than Tuesday morning, Dec. 23. The following schedule is arranged for your information:

Pacific Coast states: Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Idaho—December 15 to 17.

Western states: Montana, Wyoming, Utah—Dec. 16 to 18.

South Western states: Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas—Dec. 16 to 18.

Near-Western states: North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado—Dec. 17 to 20.

Southern states: Arkansas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia—Dec. 19 to 21.

Neighboring states: Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky—Dec. 17 to 20.

Eastern states: New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware and New England states—Dec. 17 to 21.

Local states (Intra State): Illinois for Illinois offices—Dec. 21 to 22.

If this schedule is followed on dates mentioned, or before, your card or parcel should be delivered in time for Christmas, unless weather conditions, over which we have no control, prevent us from doing so.

Stamp sales is the big item at all post offices, and we are no exceptions, as the receipts govern our expenses to a large extent, I would very much appreciate that all stamps to be stamped to be used at this office be bought at home.

Thank you for your support.
Sincerely yours,
Hugo Schneider, Postmaster.

Bannockburn Club Enjoys Fine Meeting

The Bannockburn Garden club held the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Miller. A collection of slides were shown by Mr. Jesse L. Smith of Highland Park in connection with his very interesting talk on "Wayside Planting." The December meeting of the Bannockburn Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Jones, of Lake Forest. Miss Pauline Parker, of Northwestern university, gave a delightful reading of selections of Lew Sarrett's and Sara Teasdale's poems.

No Movies Friday

On account of the Legion play, which will be presented in the Deerfield school auditorium on Friday evening Dec. 13, there will be no movies.

Mr. Bates, who is in charge of the movies plans to discontinue them during the Christmas vacation.
