Again, on Sunday, the Sunday school met at the Bartlett theatre and the church service was held at the parsonage, as was also the Epworth league in the evening. The work of restoration and cleaning at the church has progressed rather slowly, as in some respects more damage was done than was at first known. However, this week the work will go faster as additional men will be put on and by next Sunday if all goes as planned, it will be possible to hold all services in the church once more, even though the painting and decorating may not be entirely completed. When all complete we will have a completely revated church which will prove very attractive.

The W.F.M.S. met with Mrs. A. W. Yowell last Tuesday, her mother, Mrs. Steel, assisting as hostess. Mrs. C. L. Boyd and Mrs. Walker were leaders and Mrs. J. L. Miller opened the "Mystery Box." Light refreshments were served.

In purchasing greeting cards for Christmas, remember that, as Christians, our greeting cards should reflect our conception of that great church day. Let us not allow commercial interests to so paganize the day that its Christian meaning as the birthday of our Lord is quite lost sight of. Buy and send out cards that bear not only a Christmas greeting but a Christian Christmas greeting, for Christmas is nothing if it is not Christian, and Christians are certainly lacking if they fail to honor their Lord on His birthday.

The Ladies Aid holds a bakery sale at Leageler's drug store this week Saturday forenoon. They will have many good things, home made, on sale and your patronage will be appreciated and helpful.

First United Evangelical Church

Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor

Universal Bible day observed last Sunday was a time of large blessing. Literature telling about the wide circulation of the "One Book for All People," was distributed and messages full of vital truth were delivered to deeply interested congregations. One man stepped out openly to accept Jesus Christ as his Saviour; many hearts were touched and richer spiritual experiences were sought.

Rev. Harold Street, of Chicago, will preach on next Sunday at 10:45 a.m. The Announcers' Trio, nationally known, representing the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, will have full charge of the service at 7:45 p.m. Messrs. Loveless, Hermanson and King have been heard over the air by many people in these parts. Sunday evening you can hear them in our city. They have booked engagements as far ahead as December, 1931. Come early and enjoy an evening of fine gospel singing. Bring others.

The Bible school meets at 9:30 a.m. Lesson subject, "Saul of Tarsus: How a Pharisee Became a Christian." Acts 22:3-15. The lesson is intended to give the pupil an experimental understanding of the meaning of conversion. The lessons are of most extraordinary value and interest. The interest in the work of the school is marked.

The Christian Endeavor meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Topic, "How to Make Others Happy." Eph. 4:31; 5:1,2. Mrs. J. G. Fidler will lead the meeting.

Sunday, Dec. 21, will be another important day. The Lord's supper will be celebrated at 10:45 a.m. The choir will render the Christmas cantata at 7:45 p.m. The preparatory service for communion will be held on next Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The quarterly conference will meet at 9:00 o'clock.

At the service last Sunday evening the pastor read a letter from Dixon, telling about the revival that is in progress in the United Evangelical church there. The congregations fill the church to its utmost capacity and there are many converts.

J. Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland mission, frequently offered the following prayer: "Lord, I am Thine, entirely Thine, Purchased and saved by blood Divine; With full consent Thine would I be, And own Thy sov'reign right in me."
