Y. W. C. A. Notes

Y. W. C. A. Club News

At the Pi Delta's last business meeting, Carolyn Saathoff was elected president to fill the unexpired term of Grace McClure Holden who has recently married and moved to Chicago. The club decided to have a social service card party (bridge, buncos and 500) at the Y. W. C. A. Monday, Dec. 15 at 8 o'clock. Each member was asked to be responsible for a table. Over 300 tickets are out. As well as supporting a worthy cause, the club assures you a splendid good time. This party will be in place of the Club Christmas party.

The executive committee met following its regular meeting and appointed the following chairmen. Program—Alice Marks, assistant, Ethel Titus; Social—Helen Kauffman and Lois Clark; Membership—Dorothy Simpson and Bernice Rybolt; Service—Mary Cullen, Josephine Snyder; Dinner—Margaret Noerenberg.

Mothers club met at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday, Dec. 9, forty-three were present. At the business meeting it was decided to have the regular Children's Christmas party Saturday afternoon, Dec. 20 at 2:30. The committee in charge of the arrangements, Mesdames Doland, Lindstrom and Erickson. Mrs. Sobey gave several interesting readings. Following this a true experience was given by several of the members.

B. Y.'s had a business meeting at the "Y" Tuesday evening. A Christmas party was arranged for Tuesday, Dec. 16 at the Y. W. C. A. They are planning a brighter Christmas for a family, supplying toys for the children as well as food. Emily Bryn composed a new "Y" song which they used as their theme song. Tune "When It's Spring Time in the Rockies."

"When you're alone in some strange city
Friendless and away from home,
Don't forget there is a "Y"
For such girls as you and I,
Different clubs have organized,
You can bet they are alright
That take away that lonesome feeling
And you're glad there is a "Y"

The Friendship club will have a regular meeting Sunday afternoon, Dec. 14 at the Y. W. C. A. following the Girl Reserve pageant and tea. Further plans will be made for their Christmas activities.

The six weeks educational program closed this week. The course was well attended. The dramatic club will continue rehearsals with a play they expect to give the first of the year. Another similar course will be offered, starting the second week in January. Watch for further announcements.

RE-ELECT SIMONS C. OF C. PRESIDENT

Gray of the Porcupine club and Mr. Dalzel of the Izaak Walton league, all of whom spoke on the subject.

Upon motion properly seconded and carried, the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce is to go on record favoring the project and that the Civic committee work with the North Shore Sanitary District and other organizations in an endeavor to obtain the bond issue.

Election Unanimous

During the annual election of officers, President Simons turned the chair over to S. A. St. Peter. Upon motion by Paul L. Udell, seconded and carried, the organization suspended the rules governing election of officers and upon further motion, the secretary was instructed to cast a unanimous ballot in favor of the new officers.

After an introduction of the new directors and a word from each, motion was made by S. A. St. Peter, duly seconded and carried, that President Simons, the retiring officers and the entertainment committee, be given a rising vote of thanks.

G. J. Dinkeloo thoroughly explained the coming engagement of Messiah, to be held at the high school auditorium on Dec. 12. An appeal was made to those present who had not purchased tickets to do so. All proceeds are being turned over to the Social Service committee.

Urge Holiday Decoration

After a report from the Christmas Lighting committee regarding the respective costs of the proposed plans to illuminate the business area during the holiday seasons, motion was made by L. N. Berube, seconded and carried that the Chamber of Commerce drop the matter for this season. Upon further motion, the membership is to be advised of this action and that an appeal be made for individual members to decorate their own place of business.

Upon motion of L. B. Sinclair, properly seconded and carried, President Simons is to appoint a committee who shall make a study of the booklet of Highland Park and that figures be obtained as to the cost of assembling and publication. This committee is to make a report at the January meeting.

Social Service Report

Chairman Kelley of the Highland Park Social Service committee made a very comprehensive report as to the progress attained and made special mention of the relief given and that to be given for Christmas. Mr. Kelley's remarks were heard with great appreciation by those present.

Motion was made by William Doolley, properly seconded and carried that the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce extend to Rev. Fitt its regrets in his departure from this community and wishing him success in his new parish.

Invite Crusader

Upon motion of Clarence Shetzley, properly seconded and carried, the Main Street Crusader is to be invited to Highland Park and that the high school auditorium be obtained for his address. A small charge is to be last Saturday. Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Baily sang excerpts from "Hansel and Gretel" and their performance was given the highest praise.

"Oliver Twist," which is the current Goodman theatre attraction for the Saturday children's matinee, is known and loved by all, young as well as old. The February play, A. A. Milne's "Make-Believe," acted by the Evanston Children's theatre, on Feb. 7, and the March play which they will also present, meet the same standards. Parents, why not give a real treat for a Christmas present—a ticket that will insure three afternoons of fun for your young ones? Buy your tickets through the schools, at Gsell's, or through the mail from Mrs. Francis Parker, box 252, Highland Park. Santa could not leave a present that will bring more joy on winter Saturday afternoons.

American Legion Gives Comedy December 12-13 at Grammar School

On Friday and Saturday evenings, December 12 and 13, Deerfield Post, American Legion, will present in the Deerfield grammar school auditorium a hilarious comedy entitled "The Homecoming," with an all-male cast.

The scene of the play is laid way down south in Alabama, and concerns the fiftieth wedding anniversary of an old couple, who are wondering if any of the children will honor them on this auspicious occasion. They do—and how! With the help of the neighbors, friends, and miscellaneous relatives the affair turns out to be literally a howling success. Come and see for yourself—a very small admission charge at the door—remember, Friday and Saturday at eight o'clock, Deerfield Grammar School!

Special Matinees for Children at Deerpath

Special children's matinees are to be given at the Deerpath theatre on four Fridays beginning Dec. 12, for which pictures of especial interest, beauty and educational and entertainment value have been chosen by a group of Lake Forest women who are sponsoring the plan. The dates and pictures to be shown are:

Friday, Dec. 12, "Redskin"; Jan. 2, 1931, "The Break-Up"; Jan. 23, "Old Ironsides"; Feb. 6, "Bottom of the World." These are all pictures of exceptional charm and especially suitable for children. Tickets are being sold to both children and adults and a special series rate is being made for the four dates.

The women who are sponsoring the plan are Mesdames A. B. Dick, Jr.; Carter Harrison, Jr.; Edward Birmingham, Henry Isham, Wm. Burrows, Jr.; Knight C. Cowles, Thomas E. Wells, Hermon D. Smith, Neil C. Campbell, Wm. Gourley.

made for admission, the proceeds to go to the Social Service committee. President Simons appointed Clarence Shetzley and S. A. St. Peter as a committee to make all arrangements.
