Things to Cook

As we get into the peach season, although many of us think there is nothing more delicious than a nice dish of sliced peaches with cream and sugar, there are other ways of preparing them which we might try for a change.

One of these different ways will be found in the following recipe for Peach Dumplings, with a sauce to serve with them, though cream may be used instead of the sauce.

Peach Dumplings

- 1 cup flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
- 6 tablespoons milk
- 4 ripe free-stone peaches
- 8 teaspoons sugar
- 4 teaspoons butter

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together, cut in the shortening, add milk. Divide into four parts and roll each part to about four inches square.

Peel peaches, remove stones and place peaches on the pieces of rolled dough, with two teaspoons sugar and one teaspoon butter in each peach. Fold crust over peaches, press edges together and place on a greased pan, folded side down. Bake about 35 minutes in a 400 degree oven.

Sauce for Dumplings

- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 cups boiling water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix flour, sugar and salt together, stir into boiling water and cook until thickened, stirring often. Remove from fire, add butter and vanilla. Serve hot.

Three-Story Structure to Replace One Burned

A 3-story structure, housing stores on the first floor, offices on the second and apartments on the third, will be erected on the site of the old Central hotel, Waukegan, J. Blumberg, owner of the property, announced last week.

At the present time work is being carried on at the property clearing the debris and rubbish left after the recent fire there.

Permit for the new building has not yet been issued, but it will probably be of a modern type throughout consistent with the new commercial buildings being erected in the business section.
