

Highwood Scouts Collect Clothing

The Boy Scouts of Highwood made a complete canvass of their town Saturday, Nov. 30 and collected a large amount of clothing to be redistributed to the unemployed and needy. The above picture shows only a portion of this clothing, the value of which is estimated at several hundreds of dollars.

There are two scout troops in Highwood. Troop 36 at St. James parish, Michael O'Flaherty, scoutmaster, Louis Young, assistant scoutmaster and Troop 37 Oak Terrace school, Victor J. Walecka, scoutmaster.

Keep Out

Our League of Nations advocates are still urging us to enter some agreement that will bind America to take sides against the aggressor in any European war. But how would we decide who was the aggressor? Our information would come mainly from those news agencies that for years have specialized in misrepresenting the facts to the American people. Might we not find ourselves fighting on the wrong side? Why isn't it better anyway to let the Europeans settle their own quarrels?
