Boy Scout News

At the regular meeting on last Friday night, December 5th, the Otter Patrol found itself busily engaged with the task of repairing toys. Among the toys repaired were trucks, a toy cement mixer, several airplanes and some autos. Although many toys were repaired, a couple were broken to be repaired again by some boys who followed their childish desires. The work is progressing all right, and we soon expect to have quite a few toys.—Raymond Carter, Troop 52, of Deerfield Presbyterian Church.

Leads Troop in Oath

We opened our Troop 52 meeting at the Deerfield Presbyterian church, with the Scout Oath and Law and the salute to the flag. We were lead in the Scout Oath and Law by our newest Scout, Richard Merner. Then the Scout with the most merit badges (Kenneth Vetter) led us in the Salute to the flag. We then went to our patrol corners to make out our reports. The toys were brought out and we finished repairing and painting them. We played a game of "Steal the Bacon," and then were dismissed with the Scout Benediction.—Milton Merner, troop reporter, Troop 52, Deerfield Presbyterian church.

New Leader, Wilmot School

Our weekly meeting of Troop 50 was held at the Wilmot school Friday, Dec. 5.

We had a very fine meeting, with an attendance of about 12 scouts.

We had the pleasure of having Mr. Carl McManus speak to us. He told us the high points of being a scout and about scouting right as a tenderfoot scout.

We were very glad to know that Fenton Hopkins will be our assistant scoutmaster. Mr. Hvale will be our scoutmaster.

At our next meeting we will pass all the new boys in their scout tests.

After the business was taken up we went out in the school yard and played games, such as, "Heads and Tails" and "Swattem." At 9 o'clock the meeting was dismissed. We hope that those who live near the Wilmot school could be present at all of our meetings and become scouts.—Troop 50, reporter, Robert Ginter, Wilmot school.

The newly reorganized Troop 51, had its first meeting Thursday evening, Dec. 11, 1930. Mr. Dobbins, the assistant scoutmaster presided. Mr. Boyle, our new scoutmaster taught the new boys a few drills. Some of the old members of the troop taught the new members the scout oath, the scout laws, and the knots required for tenderfoot.

A few games were played during the meeting. The meeting closed with stories by Mr. Boyle and other members of the committee.—Dan Wolterding, Troop 51, Deerfield school.

Bungalow Church Teams Are Defeated

The Bungalow church's first and second basketball teams were defeated in last Thursday night's games with Crane Farm of Wheeling and Holy Cross, by low and close scores. The first team lost 19 to 15 and the second 12 to 9. Both games were hotly contested, but it seemed none of the teams were able to score often.

Bungalow Fives will play two strong teams from Crystal lake Saturday evening Dec. 20 under the coaching of F. Ferzacca of Lake Forest college, and the games should be very hotly contested. Bungalow Fives still have a number of open dates. Write to or phone their manager Mr. A. A. Frantz, Deerfield 229M for a game.
