Interesting Happenings in This Part of North Shore; County Seat Doings

Another daring house burglary is being investigated by Libertyville police, with the report last week that the home of Dr. C. H. Betzer, Lange court, Libertyville, had been ransacked and robbed of $400 in jewelry.

Contributions totaling $700 a month will be made to the fund for relief of unemployed in Waukegan and North Chicago by employes of the American Steel and Wire company plant, it was announced last week.

Burglars, who last week broke through a window in the George Efinger Hardware store in Lake Villa, carried away $250 in guns and watches.

George Heckinger, former Waukegan policeman and deputy under Sheriff L. A. Doolittle, whose appointment as a patrolman on the Waukegan police department was announced last week, is now on duty.

Mrs. Mary Martin died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lena Bidinger, 426 South Genesee street, Waukegan, at the age of 89 years and 6 months.

Judge Ralph J. Dady last week inspired 66 new voters, 19 women and 47 men, to become good citizens in a stirring address to Lake county residents who received final citizenship papers at the reception given at the county building by the American Legion, the auxiliary, and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Plans for a three story $200,000 office and apartment building to be erected by J. Blumberg on the site of the fire ruined Central Hotel building at Genesee and Water streets, Waukegan, were announced last week by Morris Blumberg, just one month after the hotel was destroyed by fire with a $50,000 loss.

William Best, 49 years old, of 2736 76th street, Elmwood Park, died last week at the Condell Memorial hospital in Libertyville where he had been rushed the day before after he had fallen from a scaffold at St. Mary's of the Lake seminary at Mundelein.

Improvements Planned in Joliet State Prison

Contracts for two construction jobs in connection with the new cell house construction at Joliet, one for a sewer system at Black Hawk park and another for a vacuum pump, to improve the system whereby the executive mansion is heated from the central power plant, near the capitol building, have been awarded by the state department of purchases and construction. The four jobs total about $7,000.

Building Total Is Increased Last Week

The total building volume for Highland Park was raised $67,200 in the last week or so when permits of that amount were issued from the office of Commissioner Sidney D. Morris.

Julius Rosenwald was issued permission to remodel his Ravinia home at Sheridan road and Roger Williams avenue, at a cost of $15,000.

Recent Proceedings in the Probate Court

Recent proceedings in probate court, of interest in this part of the county, are reported as follows:

Mary Caball, Lake Forest. Petition for Probate of Will filed and set for hearing January 5th.

Carsten Nickelsen, Deerfield. Executor authorized to pay costs of foreclosure proceedings.

Thora M. Anderson, Highland Park. Fees of executor and attorney, fixed.

Emma Moran, Lake Forest. Just and true account approved. Petition for sale of real estate filed.

Commerce Commission Authorizes N. S. Plan

The Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company was authorized by the Illinois Commerce commission last week to issue and sell its $2,500,000 income debentures, Series A, so that the company can refund certain notes maturing January 1, 1931, says a report from Springfield. The income debentures were ordered sold by the commission so as to net the company not less than 90 per cent of their face value.

Authorization for the temporary installation of a radio set in the new seven passenger Cadillac cruising car maintained by the sheriff's office was given.
