Urge Observance of Watch Night As Time of Prayer for Revival

This New Year's Eve should see the earth girdled with revival prayer-meetings! The need is supreme and universal, and more apparent this year than formerly. Nations are in distress; affliction is upon the people; horizons are perceptibly darkening; hearts are oppressed.

We need a new manifestation of God's presence. It is long since revival fires have burned brightly east and west. Great are the evils that have befallen us. Many churches and Sunday schools have closed their doors. Gifts for missions and churches have dwindled alarmingly. Most of all, there is an unmistakable withdrawal of the presence and power of God in every phase of Christian endeavor. Preaching is not in the demonstration and power of the Holy Spirit as formerly. The multitudes are thoughtless, vain, and worldly.

The influence of the church has declined greatly. Many are saying, "Who will show us any good?" Unbelief, infidelity, atheism, and sphynx-like indifference are met in every field. Dagon no longer falls before the ark of the Lord. These evils have come upon us, yet we have not made our prayer unto God that we might be turned from our iniquity, and understand His truth. This beneficent influence of the church can be recovered only as we return from our backslidings. As we draw nigh to God, He will draw nigh to us, and his divine influence will again pervade the land. Preaching and labors will be attended with the demonstration, life, and power of the Holy Spirit. God is the same: it is we who have changed.

Revivals begin in prayer-meetings. Where people pray faithfully, God works. When Christians get anxious about souls, sinners will get anxious about salvation. When hearts and churches are full of prayer, revival is at hand.

On the last night of this year, when tens of thousands of people will be in their midweek prayer-meetings, the needed revival should be the all-engaging concern. Sermons and addresses should be laid aside for prayer, so that an opportunity may be given to those who are burdened for a spiritual awakening to pray for it. When people really cry unto the Lord, He will pour out His Spirit.

The shipmaster who awakened misbehaving Jonah gave us a fitting modern call to prayer when he said: "What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not" (Jonah 1:6) History has proved that man's extremity is God's opportunity.

On the last night of the year, let every church have a revival prayer-meeting. Will you call together a group, however small in number, that will join in observing "What Night," reading God's Word and praying for revival?

John Newton's Revival Hymn
"Saviour, visit Thy plantation!
Grant, O Lord, a gracious rain;
All will come to desolation,
Unless Thou dost bless again.

"Break the tempter's fatal power,
Turn the stony heart to flesh;
And begin this very hour,
To revive Thy work afresh."

Some automobiles priced at $25,000 each were on display at the New York auto show. And we will bet that some fellow will be nery enough to buy one at the price, at-a dollar down and fifty cents a week the rest of his life.

An Iowa girl and a Missouri boy have been adjudged the two healthiest youngsters in America. And what we would like to know is whether they have had their tonsils out.
