

The Highland Park Press

VOLUME XIX

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1931

NUMBER 44

PLAN FULL YEAR'S RECREATION SYSTEM

Community Service in Co-Operation with Park Board Is Backing Project

A year round system of public recreation will be inaugurated early in January, 1931, by Community service of Highland Park, Incorporated, co-operating with Highland Park East Park Board.

Operating through a centralized headquarters, assistance will be given in co-ordinating the many splendid activities now being carried on by the different groups, offering a service bureau for individuals and agencies desiring help in planning recreation facilities and programs, and organizing such additional activities in music, drama, athletics, social recreation, nature lore, manual arts and popular education as may contribute to the best use of leisure time in the community.

The Community Service board of which Geo. R. Jones is president, has given very full study to public recreation systems throughout the country, having had special committees at work for sometime in an effort to de-

(Continued on page 43)

Men's Fellowship Club Will Hear Col. Randolph Jan. 6

The January meeting of the Men's Fellowship club will be held in the parish house of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, Jan. 6, at seven o'clock. As is customary a reception will precede the dinner, beginning at six-fifteen. Dinner will be served promptly at seven.

We are fortunate in having as the speaker of the evening Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce and a member of the Committee of Six for the suppression of crime. Colonel Randolph is one of the best known men in Chicago and is much sought after as a speaker at various gatherings. So it is a matter of special pride that he has found time to come to Highland Park to tell of the work being done to suppress crime and break up gang activities.

This dinner and meeting is open to all men in Highland Park and vicinity and it is hoped that there will be an unusually large attendance. The meetings of this club are gaining constantly in interest and attendance. The speakers have been men of reputation and in Colonel Randolph, a man nationally known in the business world, in the engineering field and specially at this time for his work in cleaning up Chicago, a high point in the program has been reached. Do not miss this opportunity to hear him. Phone your reservation to Highland Park 2176 not later than Monday, Jan. 5.

Ossoli Club Doings During January and February Are Listed

Owing to the closing of the Highland Park club Ossoli will meet in the homes of members for the balance of the year.

The last of a series of lectures by Ernst Von Ammon will be given on Thursday, Jan. 8 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. E. T. Easton, 1875 Groveland avenue, Ravinia (H. P. 1306) subject "Restraint in Modernism." The lectures have been most interesting and have been very well attended.

The following week Thursday, Jan. 15 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. H. E. Mason, 301 Central avenue, Miss Jean Sterling Nelson will lecture on "The History of Wall Paper and Its Many Uses." Miss Nelson will exhibit samples of beautiful paper for this lecture.

There will be an afternoon program and tea on Tuesday, Jan. 13 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. R. M. Cobb 901 S. Linden avenue. This talk will be given by Madame Ongawa, subject "A Japanese Woman and Her Day." Miss Ongawa will be in costume.

On Tuesday, Feb. 10 at 2:30 p.m. a lecture will be given in the home of Mrs. E. D. Brigham 250 Central avenue. Anita Willetts Burnham will speak on "Around the World with a Paint Box and a Family of Six."

There will be a bridge-tea on Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wm. T. Jones 310 N. Linden avenue.

DeWolf Will Leave Large Sum to Arts

The will of the late Wallace DeWolf, a former resident of Highland Park, included a bequest of $100,000 to the Springfield Institute of Arts and another of $50,000 to the Pasadena Art Institute. He also provided that $50,000 gifts to be given art institutes in cities selected by his trustees.

The will showed an estate of $1,000,000. The will was filed Monday with Mitchel C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court, and approved by Assistant Probate Judge Oscar Kaplan.

THE HIGHLAND PARK SOCIAL SERVICE

378 Central Avenue
Tel. Highland Park 4000

Joe Santoro, owner of the West Side Shoe Store, 533 Central avenue, will repair free of charge 50 pairs of shoes for the Social Service Bureau. If all those who have shoes, which they no longer are using will take them to the above shop they will be repaired and called for by the Social Service Committee and distributed to those who are in need of shoes.

A pair of crutches is needed by a tall man. Anyone having same please call H. P. 4000.

Around the World For Two Dollars a Day Is P. T. A. Lecture Topic

Anita Willetts Burnham, instructor and lecturer at the Art Institute will talk on her trip around the world with her family at the monthly meeting of the Lincoln school P. T. A. which will be held next Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 7, at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The family are all artists and their aim was "A sketch a day." Their experiences were many and varied and the lecture promises to be very interesting. The trip having averaged $2 a day for each member of the party.

The mother of the fifth grade children will be hostesses.

As usual there will be some one in the kindergarten room to care for small children.

Formulate Plans for Leadership Training School, Tuesday Next

Next Tuesday evening, representatives of the churches of Deerfield-Shields townships, together with the churches of Glencoe and Northbrook, will hold a meeting for the purpose of making plans for the conducting of a Community Leadership training school similar to the one held last spring. It is planned to hold this training school, some time in the early spring.

Last year 110 registered with an average attendance of 88. 51 credits were awarded which is above the average. There were representatives of the churches in Lake Bluff, Lake Forest, Highland Park, Highwood, Deerfield, and Glencoe, who attended the meetings last year.

The meeting will be held at the Bethany Evangelical church, at 7:45 next Tuesday evening. Dr. Emerson O. Bradshaw of the Chicago Council of Religious Education will be the speaker.

It is hoped that the school this spring will be larger and better than the one last year. This school was the first one organized on the north shore between Evanston and Waukegan. It was an incentive for other schools in the county in the fall.

Eastern Star Will Install New Officers

The installation of officers of Campbell Chapter No. 712, O. E. S., of Highland Park, will be held next Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock in Masonic temple. The ceremonies will be open to all members of the Eastern Star and their friends. Mrs. Blanche Muller is to be installed as the new worthy matron and Mr. Henry Hanson as the worthy patron.

Tickets for the Fashion Show and the Evolution of Courtship are now on sale at the Social Service office, 378 E. Central avenue.

DEPICT EVOLUTION OF COURTSHIP AT SHOW

Hilanders' Fashion Exhibit at Woman's Club Jan. 10 Has Unique Features

The Cave Man's club, which is represented as figuring prominently in his courtship was no more effective than in the charming strategy of the modern young woman in her pursuit of man, not if one judges by the devastating way in which Dorothy Nunn, as the Modern Girl in "The Evolution of Courtship" overcomes the resistance of the unenthusiastic young man. The incredible part is his wanting to escape in the first place!

To Be Given Jan. 10

On January 10, The Hilanders are presenting this unusual dramatic offering in which dancing, romance, and humor have been combined in a delightful and entirely original way. "The Evolution of Courtship" is to be followed by a Fashion Show in which are to be displayed both the fashions of today and yesterday. A variety of costumes from the smartest Michigan avenue shops are to be modeled by Highland Park debutantes. There will be costumes for winter sports, skiing and skating outfits, clothes for southern wear, evening gowns, dinner pajamas, ensembles for every occasion.

(Continued on page 43)

Rotary Club Meeting Is Held Monday Noon

The regular weekly session of the Highland Park Rotary club was held Monday noon, in the Moraine hotel, with good attendance. There was no special speaker, and the meeting was devoted to a general good time by the members present. During the business meeting a number of local topics were discussed informally.

Population of City in Revised Figures

Report of a recheck made by the U. S. census bureau of populations of cities and towns of Lake county, issued Monday at Washington gives figures for both 1930 and 1920, as follows: Highland Park 12,203 in 1930 and 6,167 in 1920; Deerfield village, 1,852 in 1930 and 610 in 1920; Highwood, 3,590 in 1930 and 1,446 in 1920. Deerfield township, 16,983 in 1930 and 11,813 in 1920; West Deerfield township, 3,084 in 1930 and 1,615 in 1920. Bannockburn village, 186 in 1930; no figures for 1920.

New Year's Frolic

A New Year's eve frolic is being given by the Highwood Indians at the Oak Terrace school, New Year's eve. Good music has been secured, and this promises to be one of the most delightful parties given.