

JAMES JENNINGS DIES SUDDENLY SUNDAY

Prominent Young Man Victim of Heart Trouble. Funeral
Held Tuesday

James W. Jennings, 338 Walker avenue, a well known and popular citizen of the north end of our community, died very suddenly Sunday morning about 8:30 of heart disease.

Mr. Jennings had arisen in his usual good health and gone over to the Highland Park Methodist church, of which he was caretaker, to look after the furnace there, and then returned to his home for breakfast. His wife being ill, he had to make his own meal. After taking a cup of coffee to his wife, and he had returned to the table. His wife heard a crash in the kitchen. She sprang from her bed and when she reached the kitchen found her husband lying on the floor beside his chair from which he had fallen unconscious. Failing to arouse him she called Dr. R. R. Jacks and the pastor of the church who lives within a few doors. The pastor, Rev. F. D. Hopkins, was first to arrive and he saw that Mr. Jennings was dead. The doctor arriving in a few moments later, confirmed the fact, and stated that the cause might be either heart trouble or cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Jennings was an exceedingly popular young man and the shock of his passing spread rapidly through the city. He had come to this community during the world war, being stationed at Fort Sheridan and it was during that period that he met his wife, then Miss Alma Kelley. After the war he entered the employment of the North Shore Line and was in their shops in Highwood. He was of sterling character, genial and friendly and universally liked. He was active in the work of his church, where he was not only caretaker, but secretary of the official board and teacher in the Sunday school. He was perhaps the most useful man in the church always ready to help in any undertaking and giving of himself unstintedly to each activity. His influence among the young people was most pronounced and he served as one of the counselors of the Epworth League.

He was a member of the North Shore Railway (Evans-Watkins) post of the American Legion, which participated in the funeral services which were held Tuesday afternoon from the Highland Park M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. F. D. Hopkins, and his predecessor, Rev. Wm. Doble, officiating. The burial was in Memorial Park cemetery, Waukegan.

Mr. Jennings was born in Wirt county, West Virginia, and would have been 38 years old March 30, 1931. His mother is still living in Parkersburg, W. Va., and four brothers and one sister are also living. He leaves in addition his wife and young son, Billy, and a host of friends—Contributed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hal Reeder and son Gordon of Evanston will be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Zable, tomorrow evening (Friday). The Reeder's are leaving Monday for Culver City, Calif., where they will join Mrs. Reeder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Clow, and make their home there.

Adds New Equipment

Joseph C. Emma

Manager Joseph C. Emma of the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, announces a notable addition to the modern facilities of this Polka Brothers theatre in the shape of a new improved-vision screen which gives more intimate close-ups and greater depth of perspective and markedly improves the character of the pictures presented thereon through the use of a new system of larger and sharper lenses.

The new lenses make possible enlargement of the screen about one-sixteenth, giving wider scope to the picture and making larger and more life-like figures possible, so that the naturalness of the characters appearing is emphasized. Notable increase in the depth or perspective of the pictures also is a result of the adoption of the new screen and lenses, and this makes the scenes depicted more realistic and natural.

Through use of a new aperture slide the movietone track is concealed and greater breadth given the picture in consequence, and the result is that since this new equipment which is new on the North Shore, and which only a few Chicago theatres have installed has been in use in the Deerpath the clearness, sharpness and depth of perspective and the naturalness of the life-sized figures in the closeups are more pronounced and these features have caused widespread favorable comment. This is only another evidence of the progressiveness of Manager Emma and his desire to give the Deerpath patrons the advantage of the best and most modern of movie improvements.

Miss N. M. Griffin of the Exmoor club spent Christmas in Boca Raton, Fla.

Miss Etta Grunewald and her mother Mrs. Grunewald left Tuesday for Rockford, Mrs. Grunewald's home. She has been visiting her daughter in the Udell building for several weeks.

INA CORTIL

39 SHERIDAN ROAD - - - HIGHLAND PARK

INVITES YOU TO A HARD TIMES

SALE

MONDAY, JANUARY 5th

SMART SEASONABLE WOOL DRESSES

SUNDAY NIGHT FROCKS

THE LOVELIEST EVENING GOWNS

HATS and ACCESSORIES

Our Entire Stock Must Go

$24 to $64

EVERY DRESS REDUCED TO AND BELOW COST

Deerpath Theatre

LAKE FOREST - ILLINOIS

Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 6, 7

AMERICAN LEGION BENEFIT

Barthelmess

in The DAWN PATROL

All Seats
50c

Thursday and Friday, Jan. 8 and 9

Mischievous

Mitzi Green

Genial

Gene Palette

and the romantic, actionful

RICHARD ARLEN

"The Santa Fe Trail"

A Paramount Picture