

Local and Personal

Miss Lucille Helm, who returned Saturday from Fisk, Wis., where she spent the holidays visiting her parents and who spent the week-end with her aunt Mrs. E. M. Conrad, met with an accident Sunday evening on her way back to Lake Zurich where she teaches school. On account of the heavy fog the car in which she was riding hit a culvert and threw Miss Helm in such a way that she received a fractured knee cap. The driver was slightly injured. Miss Helm will be laid up two months at the home of her aunt.

"Dickie" Martin who underwent a serious operation for appendicitis a few weeks ago in Champaign, Ill., returned to his fraternity house from the hospital on Saturday. He is getting along very nicely.

Miss Betty La Shelle entertained a group of friends at a dinner-dance at Exmoor on Saturday.

"Deere" Frank Stipe returned Friday to Beloit college after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stipe of S. Green Bay road.

Mrs. Charles F. Grant will be hostess this evening at her home on Forest avenue to the members of her Sewing club.

Mrs. Raymond W. Schneider will entertain the members of her bridge club tomorrow evening at her home on Ridgewood drive. There will be two tables.

Among the interesting old gowns to be worn in the Fashion Show being presented in the Elm Place auditorium on Saturday afternoon and evening is one worn by Miss Margaret Parkin. This was worn by her great-great-grandmother in 1820. Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock will appear in a dress worn by her great-great aunt in 1850. Miss Eleanor Roberts will wear her great-grandmother's dress of 1850. Miss Ethel Harmon will model a dress worn by Miss Mirjane Strongs' grandmother in 1865. Miss Tevis Gibson will appear in a wedding dress of Mrs. Roger Vail's mother, worn in 1888. Miss Almyra Gibson will wear a dress worn by her grandmother in 1865.

Miss Evelyn Bakke and her brother Carl Bakke, returned Sunday to Madison, Wis., where they will resume their studies at the university after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bakke of McGovern street.

George La Shelle will leave on Sunday for St. Catherine, Canada, where he will resume his studies at Ridley college on Monday.

John Steele will entertain about thirty of his school friends at a dancing party on Saturday evening at his home, 250 Vine avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cohen of Hazel avenue, returned on Saturday from Omaha, Neb., where they attended the wedding of Miss Helen Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams, vice president of the Union Pacific Railway Co., on New Year's day.

Mr. F. E. Vaughan was called to Los Angeles the day after Christmas on account of the serious illness of his mother. When he arrived he found her somewhat improved. Mr. Vaughan and his mother are expected to arrive in Highland Park Sunday.

The Misses Eleanor Flanigan and Alice Bergdahl left on New Year's day for a three months sojourn in California.

Tickets for the Fashion Show and "Evolution of Courtship" may be secured at the Social Service office, 378 Central avenue. Phone H. P. 4000.

Junior Cope, Harrison Walther, Keith Grant, and Hans Bahr are among the boys returning to their studies in Champaign after spending the holidays with their respective parents.

The D. A. R. board were entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lewis B. Sinclair of Dale avenue on Monday, Jan. 5.

The Mission band of the First United Evangelical church will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church. All members are asked to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barber and small son of Milwaukee, Wis., spent a few days last week with Mrs. Leo White of Bloom street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meierhoff of Glencoe avenue were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz of Deerfield, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Flint of North Second street entertained at dinner New Year's day. The guests included folks from Deerfield and Northbrook.

Mrs. Olivia Anderson of Deerfield was the Sunday guest of Mrs. M. C. Lundgren of South First street.

Miss Bernice Durment, formerly of this city, is in charge of the little children at Dodderidge Farm in Libertyville. Dodderidge Farm used in the summer as a vacation home for orphan children of the Episcopal Orphan's home, will now be open to needy mothers and children, especially widows and their children for the winter, until May 1. The work of caring for the needy mothers and children is made possible by the kindness and generosity of Mr. Britton I. Budd of Chicago, who founded the home as an orphanage in memory of his first wife.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bleimehl of Deerfield were the New Year's day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murphy of Glencoe avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grego left on Sunday for a southern trip. They are planning to go to New Orleans from there by boat through the Panama Canal on the Havana then back to New Orleans where they will get their car and tour Florida. Mr. Grego will return February first, while Mrs. Grego and her daughter will remain in Miami until March 1.

Mrs. Hoyne Anderson will leave next week for New York to be gone several weeks.

Miss Ruth Colidge returned Sunday to Beloit college after the holidays spent with her family.

Mr. Harold Holbrook of St. Louis, Mo., was a visitor at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Fidler and family, Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustave F. Weinfeld have just returned from a ten day stay in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Laing left yesterday for Josephine, Ala., where they will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully of Deerfield will entertain the members of the Press bridge club Saturday evening.

A group of high school students enjoyed a tea dance New Year's afternoon at the home of Miss Barbara Frank, of Park place.

Katharine Walker Smith

704 Church St.

Evanston

PRESENTS

An Occasion in Buying in the Evanston Shop

SILK and WOOLEN

DAYTIME DRESSES

$15 or Two for $25

Another Group Including
Evening Gowns at $25

Values to $95

Other Dresses at Remarkable Reductions

DANCE SETS from	$2.95
NIGHT GOWNS from	$4.95
EXQUISITE NECK SCARFS	$1.95

A FEW VERY SMART COATS, SUITS AND EVENING WRAPS MARKED
BELOW COST.

Hats $5 to $10

Values to $35.00

ALL SALES FINAL

In the Lake Forest Shop

270 E. Deerpath

The resort clothes are lovely and as varied in selection as price.

Cotton Tennis and Golf Dresses from $12.75

Silks from $25.75

One will find the imported hand-made silks, with Argora Coats to match, alluringly priced. Model

Hats or those made for those costumes.

EXQUISITE UNDERWEAR AT SPECIAL
PRICES DURING JANUARY