

Insane Man Attacks Woman Escort While Being Taken to Home

John Ehlen, Lyons, Wis., who has been spending some months in a Kansas sanitarium for the insane, attempted to kill one of the party who were returning him to his home by automobile after he had been declared normal again by sanitarium officials.

The attempt occurred in Libertyville near Milwaukee and Austin avenues last week, Ehlen became enraged and attempted to strangle Mrs. James Block, who was seated with him and her husband in the rear seat of the automobile. The Blocks motored to Kansas with Frank Ehlen, brother of the insane man and were taking him to his home.

The party found Ehlen very difficult to manage and called passing motorists to help. Chief of Police Frank Druba and Patrolman Joe Sam hurried to the scene and took Ehlen into custody.

Wants Law to Remove Vets From Pauper Act

Amendment of the present law so that relief for war veterans would be removed from the pauper act, and make it possible for such men and their families to be free from the stigma of pauperism will be advocated at the coming session of the Illinois general assembly, by State Senator Charles E. Lee, he told the United Press here today.

Lee declared that most of the veterans who are being aided by the state are those who are not receiving proper attention from the federal government.

"Most of them," he said, "do not deserve the name paupers, and of course the families of such veterans should be free from the treatment they receive in many counties of the state when they ask for help."

Lee also plans to sponsor several minor changes in other statutes but has not drafted any comprehensive program of legislation, he said.
