Highland Park Plant First to Be Erected by N. S. Sanitary Board

The Highland Park sewage disposal plant, to be erected at an approximate cost of $160,000, will be the first unit in the improvement program of the North Shore Sanitary District, board members decided at a recent session.

Since the passage of the $2,500,000 bond issue late in December, members of the Sanitary Board have been busy drawing specifications and laying plans for an early start on the improvement project next spring.

The Highland Park plant will be erected at a Dean street site there in the Ravinia district. As yet definite plans for the structure have not been laid but it is expected that specifications will be completed in time to advertise for bids within 60 days, President John Oliver declared.

Other communities of the area included in the program and the amount of expenditure scheduled for each follows: Winthrop Harbor, $38,500; Highland Park, $160,000; North Chicago $124,500; Lake Forest $47,500; Highwood, $93,500, and Waukegan, $736,000.
