This musical organization needs no introduction in this community, they have put on many successful cantatas, vespers and general musical programs. Their many friends will welcome the opportunity of hearing them in this special community vesper. Since this service is being put on in the interest of the unemployed of this vicinity, this choir has invited a number of its friends from the community, to assist them with solos, duets and quartette numbers. This will add much to the richness of this sacred musical festival. The other churches of this community and the general public are cordially invited to help make this service a success. The offering of the afternoon will go to the Social Service committee to help them in the splendid work they are doing.
