

LIVELY ACTIVITY AT AMUSEMENT CENTRE

Progress of the Indoor Golf Tournament; Ping-Pong Tourney Held

INDOOR LOLF LEAGUE
Standing Jan. 26	Matches Points Played Won
H. P. Press	1 7
H. P. News	1 7
H. P. Cleaners	1 5
Vic J. Killian	1 5
Tillman's Service Station	1 4
Fell Bros.	1 4
Hunter's Sport Shop	1 3
H & R Anspach	1 3
Art Olson Co.	1 3
Decker Plumbing	1 1

Fore! Golfers

(Sam Bernardi)

The Indoor league, well along on the schedule, matched the H. P. News and Hunter's Sport shop and had an interesting entry. Chambers and Arnsward (H. P. News) pair took 4 points from Geary and Russo. Stewart and Williams (H. P. News) won the 1st nine from Snyder and Craig giving them one point, the latter winning the second nine, the match and also the putting contest giving Hunter's three points. Final points won were: H. P. News, 5, to Hunter's three points.

Anspach's and H. P. Cleaners met on Thursday night, bringing two of the strongest teams together. Tom Kelly and Jim Martin (Anspach's) lost their match to J. Kelly and C. Elwell on the Decker course but won the 18 hole putting contest on the miniature after six extra holes, when Jim Martin gracefully stroked his ball in the cup in one. Although Jim had his troubles on the Decker course by going in all the water hazards he returned himself on the 24th hole on the miniature. Same Martin and W. Flinn (Anspach's) won three points from B. Brand and Doug Hansen, the latter winning one point. Final points won H. P. Cleaners five, Anspach three.

Killian Plumbing and Olson & Co. were next to hit the little white pill in the hole on Friday night. Bob Carey and A. Wolock (Olson) beat

(Continued on page 30)

Dr. Balke to Address High School Students

Dr. Balke, a research chemist, has been secured to speak in the Deerfield-Shields assembly, Friday, Feb. 6.

Being a local man, Dr. Balke is known to many Deerfield students. His daughter, Hildegard, is one of the cheerleaders and is well known for her athletic ability. Barbara and Roger Balke, both former students of Deerfield, are studying music. Barbara also plays in the school orchestra.

Dr. Balke is a research chemist in the Pfanstiehl Laboratories in Waukegan. His topic will be "Duties of a Research Chemist."

In speaking on chemistry, Dr. Balke will bring out some of the more practical uses of it, and how much it aids in the manufacturing of today.

Returns from Convention

Mr. A. L. Nordskog, manager of John Zengeler, Inc., has just returned from the convention of the National Cleaners and Dyers association held at West Baden Springs hotel, West Baden, Ind. Mr. Nordskog reports that new methods and constructive ideas were discussed at the session.

Represents Red Cross Drought Relief Here

Mr. William M. Dooley, cashier of the North Shore Trust Co., has been appointed by the American Red Cross to have charge of the $10,000,000.00 American Red Cross drought relief fund. The president has appointed a national committee of over fifty men to help the Red Cross raise the amount. This committee is headed by Calvin Coolidge, honorary chairman; John Barton Payne, chairman; General Abel Davis, vice chairman; General John J. Pershing, vice chairman; Alfred E. Smith, vice chairman.

Over a half million people in twenty-one states are already receiving Red Cross assistance. Their resources, the resources of their communities are gone. They have no one to turn to but the Red Cross. The Red Cross needs your help and the help of all your people that it may meet the needs of those people.

Leadership Training School Opens Feb. 9

The Community Leadership Training school will have its first session on Monday evening Feb. 9. Nearly all of the Sunday schools of this township are co-operating in this splendid undertaking. The following instructors have been engaged: Miss Marion Norris, Miss Dorothy Kurzenknabe, Miss Lucile Desjardens and Mr. E. O. Bradshaw. All of these instructors have had wide experience in the field of Religious Education and will prove a great help to those who wish to qualify themselves as better leaders and teachers in the Sunday school. This school will meet on Monday evenings for a period of six weeks. Any one desiring to enroll is asked to be present on the first Monday evening. All classes will be held at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The Sunday schools of Deerfield, Glencoe, Highwood, Lake Bluff, Northbrook, Wheeling, Highland Park and Lake Forest are interested in this project.

Sunday Schools Hold Convention Feb. 8

The Deerfield-Shields Sunday school convention, will be held at the Bethlehem Evangelical church at Deerfield, under the direction of Dr. E. D. Fritsch of Highland Park, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 8. All Sunday school workers are invited to hear Dr. T. A. Tripp of Springfield, who will speak on the subject "Teaching for Christian Living." His message will be followed by two interesting conferences.

Confetti Dance at Masonic Hall Saturday

The Whoopee dance held last Saturday at the Masonic temple attracted a tremendous group of dancers. This dance proved to be such a success that a confetti dance will be held this Saturday, Jan. 31, in the same hall, the Masonic temple.

Groppis Rengler's the popular six-piece group of jazz experts, managed by Ed Melpelli, will provide great fun and entertainment for those who come. Don't forget next Saturday.

Enjoys News from Columns of Press

The Press is in receipt of another letter from a former resident of Highland Park in which she expresses her appreciation of the local paper. Following is an excerpt from her letter:

"I've very much enjoyed keeping in touch with my Highland Park friends through its columns, and always have greeted its coming with pleasure. Sincerely, Miss Alice S. Davidson, Avon Park, Fla."

A favorable comment is always appreciated and especially so when it comes from our old subscribers.

Goes to Bloomington

Dan Hunt of Deerfield leaves Saturday for Bloomington to attend the state meeting of American Legion commanders to be held Saturday and Sunday. He will represent Charles Kapschull of the eighth district at the meeting.

Louis A. Ruehl Dies; Funeral Held Monday

Mr. Louis A. Ruehl, father of William Ruehl, Chevrolet dealer, died Friday at his home, 622 S. St Johns avenue. He had been in ill health for the past two years.

He was seventy-five years old and had made his home in Highland Park for the past five years. Mr. Ruehl was a graduate of a medical school in Germany and also of Rush Medical school, Chicago. For a number of years he was associated with his father in the Ruehl Brewery Co., of Chicago.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. F. J. Behn of this city and Mrs. P. T. Starck of Chicago, and one son, Mr. William Ruehl of this city to survive him.

Funeral services were held Monday from Klaners Undertaking parlors, Chicago, with burial in Graceland cemetery.

The sympathy of the community is extended his family in their bereavement.

MR. FRED BALZ
Announces
the opening of a
BARBER SHOP
at
388 CENTRAL AVENUE
Opposite North Shore Trust Company
on or about February 2, 1931
He has worked at the Barber Trade in Highland Park since 1916

The present economic situation proves beyond doubt the benefits of systematic saving. The man who has money "laid away" does not need to worry about hard times—and he is furthermore in a position to make good, sound investments at an unusually reasonable figure when opportunity offers. Prepare yourself for future emergencies by adopting and keeping up a regular savings plan.

North Shore Trust Company
BANK