

PRESBYTERIAN GUILD MINSTRELS FEB. 12-13

Annual Entertainment at Elm Place Auditorium; Large Cast; Fine Program

The Presbyterian Guild's entertainment has been an annual event looked forward to and long remembered. It is given for charity, Laird Community House being their particular charity.

The show this year will be an minstrel and revue. It will be given in Elm Place auditorium Feb. 12 and 13, and is under the direction of Edna Wood Miller. Mrs. Miller has had years of experience on the stage and in teaching dramatics.

You no doubt remember "Aunt Lucia," given last year? This year's minstrel will be even greater fun.

Come and see your town folks in a black face dialogue, sing and dance the latest song hits and dances, and some of the old ones, with many specialty acts, also.

Worth Hearing

The opening chorus and the closing Hallelujah with fifty voices are well worth hearing.

No minstrel is complete without a cake walk — and such a cake walk as there will be.

The Flapper Chorus, the big hit of last year's show will again appear in the latest ballet.

Tickets are on sale at Sweetland's pharmacy, Highland Park pharmacy, Pease and Gsell's. Tickets reserved (Continued on page 45)

Caldwell Talks About Birds; Fine Pictures; Woman's Club Feature

At the last meeting of the Woman's club, Feb. 3, Mr. Guy C. Caldwell, one of America's greatest naturalists, gave an illustrated talk on "Bird Songs and Wild Flowers."

Mr. Caldwell has a rare gift of making his listeners dwell in the holy temple of nature with the birds, wild flowers and the trees. His picture were masterpieces; he gave many bird calls and imitated bird songs; he also showed pictures of the Long Peak region on Colorado and of the Rocky Mountain regions.

Mr. Caldwell has traveled extensively all over the world, and has an intimate and practical knowledge of nature to be found in every clime. He was not only pleasing and entertaining, but instructive as well, and a source of delight to all who heard him.

Announce Lecture on Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist of Highland Park, announces a free lecture on Christian Science by Miss M. Ethel Whitcomb, C.S.B., of Boston, Mass., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., to be given Friday evening, Feb. 6 at eight o'clock in the Elm Place school auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Five Local Artists Exhibit Paintings at Art Institute

The thirty-fifth annual exhibition by artists of Chicago and vicinity opened at the Art Institute on Thursday, Jan. 29, and will be the chief interest there until March 1. The exhibit includes works of five Highland Park artists, Miss Edith Boynton, Rudolph Ingerle, Leonore Smith Jerrems, Elizabeth B. Millard, and Harold Schultz. Mr. Ingerle contributes a striking picture which has been reproduced in the catalog of the exhibit and is entitled "The Meet'n House." It is a glimpse of the Tennessee valley and its people that this artist loves to reproduce. Leonore Smith Jerrems exhibits three paintings, two of still life, "Spanish Bottle" and "Chrysanthemums," and a landscape with trees entitled "Old Locusts." Mrs. Jerrems' skill in handling still life subjects is again amply demonstrated in this exhibit as on former occasions. Her study of tree masses in her one landscape is full of interest. Mrs. Millard's painting is of still life and is entitled "Lysimachia." The name is that of the flowers which furnish the center of interest in the painting. Simplicity together with attractiveness of color and arrangement characterizes the work. Harold Schultz exhibits four paintings which represent studies of Mexican life and architecture made during his last summer's vacation in Mexico City and vicinity. Mr. Schultz's work is somewhat "modern" in style but there is a freshness and directness in these studies that appeal even to those who regard the later innovations with more or less disapproval. His titles are "Mexican Market," "Mexican Street," "Mexican Village," "Xochimilco, Mexico."

St. Peter Withdraws from City Election Race; Present Status

Withdrawal of S. A. St. Peter's candidacy for commissioner in Highland Park, with that of Walter Meierhoff, announced last week, leaves the incumbents opposed by only two independents.

Mayor B. F. Lewis must fight it out with E. B. Metzel for that office, while Magistrate Herman Schwery is opposed by Earl H. Purdy. A. B. Cook and J. H. Taylor are seeking to oust two of the sitting commissioners from office.

Mr. Metzel was for many years president of the board of education in District 107. A former official with the Cutler Shore company, he is retired and plans to devote his entire time to the city office, if elected.

Present commissioners are Lyle Gourley, William Brown, Julius Zimmer and William M. Reay.

I. O. O. F. Card Party

Sheridan Lodge No. 662, I. O. O. F., will give a card and bunco party, Tuesday evening, Feb. 10 in Odd Fellows hall. Bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played for which prizes will be awarded. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Dr. T. L. Tripp

Dr. T. A. Tripp

Dr. E. D. Fritsch, who is president of the Deerfield-Shields Sunday School association, announces the annual convention for next Sunday afternoon. This convention will be held at the Bethlehem Evangelical church in Deerfield, it will begin at 2:30 p. m. Dr. T. A. Tripp of Springfield, who has charge of the "Leadership Training Schools" in Illinois, will be the main speaker. Several interesting group conferences will be conducted following his address.

Garden Study Club Enter 5 Exhibits at Flower Show

Five exhibits are being entered by the Highland Park Garden Study club in the flower show of the Garden Club of Illinois which will be held in the Merchandise Mart, March 21 to 27 inclusive.

Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey will do an Italian table in the national tables class. Mrs. Henry Steele will set a formal dinner table. Mrs. J. S. Weinberg and Mrs. B. K. Goodman will make an arrangement of flowers for a living room. Mrs. Thomas S. Dawson is arranging a special exhibit, and Mrs. Leo Steele and Mrs. Weinberg are entering an arrangement of flowers in wall pockets.

Advance sale of tickets at a considerable reduction over the "at the door" prices may be obtained from any member of the Garden club or by calling H. P. 3590.

Appeal Made for Home for High School Girl

Another appeal is being made for a home for a 16 year old girl, who is now attending the Deerfield-Shields high school and is in her sophomore year. She is very well trained and is no problem at all. She is so anxious to finish her schooling at the high school and this will be impossible unless a home can be found for her. Please communicate with Mrs. Ruby S. Wallis, 203 N. Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill., if you have any such home to offer.

CHILDREN'S PLAY AT ELM PLACE SATURDAY

"Princess and Vagabond" to Be Given by Evanston Children's Theatre

Saturday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 2:30 p. m. at the Elm Place auditorium, the "Princess and the Vagabond" will be presented by the Evanston Children's theatre. From all advance press notices, those who attend will have a real treat, for the play, after its initial performance in Evanston on January 17, was rated by local papers as one of the outstanding successes in the history of the Children's theatre. Professor George P. Baker, head of the department of drama at Yale university, visiting in Chicago, attended the opening of the play and assured Miss Winifred Ward, who is in charge of the Children's theatre, that whenever he could attend one of their productions it would be his great pleasure to do so. Several Highland Park school teachers were also in the audience, and they likewise gave their hearty endorsement.

Is Different

The play will be a direct contrast to the last given in this series sponsored by the literature committee of (Continued on page 42)

Rabbi L. J. Kopald Passed Away Yesterday

Dr. Louis J. Kopald, 46 years old, rabbi of the North Shore Congregation Israel, Glencoe, died yesterday at the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, Md., where he had been for six weeks, suffering from tuberculosis.

Dr. Kopald is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elso Rheinstrom Kopald, who was at his bedside. He was a brother of Sigmund L. and Herman G. Kopald, Mrs. Richard W. Desdecker, and Mrs. Louis E. Wilzin. He was born in Austria, but his parents brought him to America when he was three months old. He had been in charge of the congregation at Glencoe for three years.

Receiving his B.A. and M.A. degrees at the University of Cincinnati, and later taking a special course in Semitics at the University of California, Dr. Kopald entered the ministry at Stockton, Cal., in 1909.

Funeral services will be held in Baltimore, with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise officiating.

Boy Scout Troop No. 30 Observes Parents Night

The regular meeting of Boy Scout Troop No. 30 last night was in the form of a Parent's Night, held at the Howard-Udell Cafeteria. After the regular opening exercises of the troop and a few remarks by Scoutmaster John L. Udell, moving pictures of Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan were shown. Thirty members of the troop and forty parents were present. Following the pictures, Mrs. Howard, manager of the Cafeteria, served sandwiches, coffee and cocoa. Scout songs were sung and as the bugle sounded "Taps" all stood at attention.
