

Troop 30 Sponsored by H. P. Rotary Club

Although Troop 30 meets at Elm Place school it is sponsored by the Highland Park Rotary Club with Sol A. St. Peter, chairman, Walter Cope, E. T. Skidmore, A. T. Larson. Mr. John Udell, who has actively served as scoutmaster since October 1929, has been the key man in the development and progress of this troop. It has strengthened the troop to have every man on the committee as well as the scoutmaster a dad with a boy in the troop. The troop set a record by having 23 boys of their troop attend Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan together with Mr. Udell. They made a fine showing of progress while at camp. The Scouts of Troop 30 are listed below:

Troop 31, Elm Place School; Membership

A Scouter of five years' experience, Mr. Wendall A. Hill, is serving as scoutmaster of Troop 31, at Elm Place School. Mr. Hill had been a Scout leader in Lake Forest some time ago and became leader of Troop 31 in June, 1930. He organized his troop. Mr. Harry Langford is chair-camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan in 1930 and attended with them. The troop committee have lent real support to the troop. Mr. Harry Lanford is chairman, Messrs. Louis Schultz, Byron C. Howes, Leo Steele and George N. Kellner are active members. All the committeemen are fathers of boys in the troop.

The troop was one of the first to re-register for 1931, listing the following Scouts: John Berkson, John Childs, Philip Danley, John Davis, Tom Hawkins, Grant Herman, Jack Meyers, John Steele, Hamilton Herman, Randolph Herman, Wallace Hilborn, Byron Howes, George Kenner Jr., Hiram Kennicott, Edward Norcross, Arthur Oppenheimer, Randall Roberts, Neal Rumbaugh, Louis Schultz, Morton Traub Jr., Robert White and Walter Willard.

Troop 32, Highland Park Presbyterian Church

Troop 32, sponsored by the Men's Fellowship Club of Highland Park Presbyterian church, is under the capable leadership of Mr. Albert D. Brush, scoutmaster and Ernest West, assistant scoutmaster. Mr. E. E. West, chairman, James I. Hurd, Joseph J. Riddle, and F. J. Spaulding, make up the committee. The sponsorship of the troop has just recently been taken over by the Fellowship Club and now it looks forward to a still better troop.

This troop is outstanding that it is trained in the use of the Scout staff. At the dedication of the Highland Park Library they performed a piece of service by guiding the crowd that would have practically impossible without these scouts with their staffs.

The registered list of Scouts is as follows: Paul Allen, Albert Brush, Dexter Calkins, Neuman Fell, Raymond Fitzgerald, Frederick Golden, Robert Grant, Harry Hall, Don Hurd, David Jenkins, H. Ernest, Robert Lehr, Edward Moroney, Joseph Riddle, Robert Riddle, Edward Rogan, Francis Rudd, Donald Schwalbach, Orin F. Spaulding, Thomas Stratford, Herbert Stevens, Richard Suess, Edward West, and Jack Witten.

Troop 33, Lincoln School Highland Park; Members

Troop 33 has been unusual in enlisting the active service of practically every Scout dad on the troop committee. Although only the five-men standard troop committee is registered, every dad has his part to "play" and plays it. Mr. R. B. Anderson is chairman for 1931 with Dan McLellan, W. F. Nelson, A. Judson Wells, and J. B. Garnett. Another unusual thing in this troop is that the Scoutmaster, Mr. H. R. Smith, who is a Silver Palm Eagle Scout, has two sons, Denton and Roderic, who are also Silver Palm Eagles, all getting their awards together. Mr. Smith has one other son, Kerwyn, who is a first class Scout. The troop as a whole has made a splendid advancement record. Their three assistant Scoutmasters are: Lloyd Wightman, Frank Wichman and Carl Rein. This six-year-old troop has the following Scouts registered for 1931: James Anderson, Robert Anderson, Allen Benson, Lawrence Briggs, Dan Davis, James Garnett, George Hinn, Carl Huncke, Joseph Klaber, Percy Joyce, George McLellan, Frank Moran, Jack Moran, Tom Nelson, Kennebuhr, Robert Rasmussen, Henry Richardson, John Seyfarth, Denton, Roderic and Kerwyn Smith, A. Judson Wells.

Troop 34 Organized in May, 1929; Its Personnel

Troop 34 was the original Presbyterian church troop organized by the Men's Fellowship Club in May 1929. Now Mr. Harlan C. Betts is scoutmaster and Ralph W. Pratt is assistant scoutmaster. Mr. Frank J. Horn is troop committee chairman, with L. W. Maley, William J. Brown, W. L. Winters and Wm. W. Geary as members. This last fall and winter has witnessed a growth and development in the troop. With the fine leadership it now has there is a happy future in store. The Scouts registered for 1931 are as follows:

Herbert Bromis, Thomas Brown, James Cuffey, Robert Geary, David Inman, Fred Johnson, George Marshall, Otto Olson, Walter Pardee, J. P. Peabody, Arthur Poiner, Ashley Thomas, Robert White and Wright Witmer.

Troop 35 of Ravinia School Is 7 Years Old

Troop 35 at Ravinia school has served the boys of the south part of Highland Park since December, 1924, over seven years. Since last fall the troop has been under the leadership of one of the scout's father, Mr. Robert F. Walker. The troop has demonstrated fine spirit for a real scout program under Mr. Walker's guidance. The troop is backed and sponsored by a group of men representing the school; they are James Cady Ewell, chairman, O. E. M. Keller and Howard F. Copp.

For 1931 we find the following 31 boys registered: Art Baldauf, Crosby Keller, Walter Metcalf, Grant Benson, Howard Bowman, Meridith Elick, Charles Zahn, Frank Lawrence, Russell Sanders, Peter White, Ted Cabonargi, Robert Olson, Paul Rice, Calvin Defenbaugh, Robert Zahn, Dade Epstein, Robert Long, Jock Venning, Alden Harris, Orlando Viverica, Harold Holstrom, William Wright, Lew Barrett, Bobs Foss, John Wyle, Edward Brizzolari, Robert Walkey, Holbert Wampler, James Hirsch, John Epstein, and S. Buhner.

Troop 36, St. James Ch., Highwood, Began in 1925

The St. James Catholic parish of Highwood has sponsored troop 36 since the troop began in 1925. Mr. Michael O'Flaherty as scoutmaster and Louis L. Young as assistant scoutmaster, have been hard at work building this troop for the past year. Mr. Young stayed two weeks at summer camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan with fourteen scouts. Mr. P. M. Prato is troop committee chairman; Messrs. Paul Muzik, Guy Viti and Rev. Jeremiah Holley are members. The troop has a definite part in the institutional program and has fine support by its committee. Mr. Muzik is giving the scouts special first aid training.

The registered scouts for 1931 are: Edward Brown Jr., Lucien Carani, Ambrose Cantagallo, Frank Cantagallo, Arthur Driscoll, James Garrity, James Golden, Robert Golden, Mike Gualandi, Richard O'Neil, Edward Nolan, Cilo Notogocomo, Ernest Santi, Frank Shelton, Stanley Smith, Willard Smith, Geno Tony, Andrew Welch and John Wisdom.

Troop 37, Oak Terrace School Has Good Record

With continuous re-registration with national council since December, 1925, troop 37 of the Oak Terrace school, Highwood, has earned a name for itself in the community for the fine scout work they have performed. Mr. J. E. Enquist, chairman, Mr. Fred Wiese, and Mr. Raymond Roth are on the committee backing the troop. A great deal of credit for the building of this troop should go to Scoutmaster Victor J. Walecka and his assistant scoutmaster, Lloyd Moon. About 15 scouts attended Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan for two weeks last summer under the leadership of Mr. Moon.

The 1931 registered scouts are listed: Glyn Ashurst, August Baracani, Murray Barrett, Daniel Baruffi, John C. Bemus, Marvin Brownlee, Peter Contoneyes, Edwin Cowgill, Raymond Cowgill, Raymond Fini, Anker Jepsen, Jacob Jepsen, Edward Markowitz, Nello Mordini, Hugh Peterson, William Roberts, William Russell, Carl Sanderhoff, John Schaffer, Buryle Shapiro, Ralph Southerton, Robert Stupey, Raymond Walz and Robert Wicklander.

Troop 38, West Ridge School Is New Group

With the recruiting of additional leadership this last fall, Troop 38 of the West Ridge School starts out an active year for 1931. Mr. Ernest Teberg, father of a Scout, is the scoutmaster with the following Scouts enrolled: Carl Bonn, John Jackson, George McKillip, Raymond Rectenwald, Henry Scheskie Jr., Leslie Scheskie, Leo Tahtinen, Daniel Teberg, and Barrett Willson.

The troop is growing, but even with a few Scouts they can and do put the "outing" in "Scouting" and are progressing right along. Mr. Henry Scheskie is chairman of the troop committee. The other members are: William Rectenwald, L. Mitchell, K. E. Bennett, J. B. Jackson and Harry H. Wilson.

Troop 44, Arden Shore Camp Group Is Gaining

Troop 44, sponsored by the Arden Shore Camp, has made remarkable progress in the past year. Scouting is now a part of their daily life in Camp and every boy of age has eagerly enrolled as a Boy Scout. The program of the work and play is organized on the Scouting plan. At the Boy Scout Hobby Show in Lake Forest, Troop 44 had one of the finest exhibits, in which they showed they were experts in handicraft and nature work. Miss Ferrier, who is in charge of the Camp, has done much in co-operation with Scouting. Scoutmaster Clayton Booker, who is an honor student at Lake Forest college is doing a remarkable piece of work in his everyday contact with the boys. Scout Sam Rose represented the spirit of Arden Shore at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan last summer. Following is the complete roster for 1931: Jack Bechovsky, Frank Bentz, Anthony Borkowski, Venceslavs Borkowski, Nathan Born, Andrew Buraczowski, William Burns, Mike Burica, Miles Cech, Tom Conpropst, Norman Curran, Stanley Daneliak, Charles Divinski, Mike Dvorat, Vernon Hayes Corneliuss Hillemonds, James Hulbert, Casmer Jarzen, Tony Johansen, Cornelius Johansen, Raymond Landick, James Materi, D. Maurice, George Meyers, Edward Mickes, Joseph Nowicki, George Passarelli, Joe Rodwiki, John Polichari, F. Rapacz, Sam Rose, Max Rosenthal, Robert Siegel, William Sipler, John Strobot, Joseph Szpiech, Loris Taylor, Edward Trelka, James Tynan, John Varga, Steve Wierzbicki, Herbert Wolff, Walter Zawoiski, and Alex Zemancek.

Troop 45 Is Oldest in Lake Forest; Membership

The oldest troop in Lake Forest is troop 45 of the Church of the Holy Spirit. It was organized in December, 1924. Merle C. Tibbetts, a dad with three sons in the troop, is the active scoutmaster who has done so much in helping build the troop in the past year and a half. The assistant scoutmaster, Tom Atteridge, has also been very active for nearly two years. In this troop the boys have a large part in planning and conducting their own troop meetings under the guidance of their senior leaders. The committee has worked very close to things in the troop; Rev. Herbert W. Prince is chairman
