

LEADING RESIDENTS ENDORSE SCOUT PLAN

Well-known Highland Park People in Favorable Comment on Scouting Benefits

Additional endorsements of the Boy Scout program continue to come in to Elmer F. Wieboldt, chairman of the Publicity committee of the Boy Scout campaign. The following by Highland Park residents are of especial interest here:

Rev. Christoph Keller, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, Highland Park:

"The boy whose love for the sky, land and water is stimulated by a knowledge of these elements has an anchor which almost always holds things steady for him through life.

"The scout movement energetically and systematically overcomes the handicap of cement pavements and high buildings and takes boys into places where they can feel and learn to love the things not made by hands.

"Therefore, even on this count alone the scout movement is worthy the support of those who are interested in furnishing anchors for boys as they grow into manhood."

Mrs. Erastus R. Phelps, president of the Highland Park Woman's club:

"The privilege of being a Boy Scout is one of the finest experiences a boy may have. The character build-

Congregation Israel Sunday Sermon Topic

Dr. Samuel S. Cohon will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning, Feb. 15, at 11 o'clock, of the North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe. The subject of his sermon will be: "A Basis for Good-Will."

Dr. Cohon will attempt to answer the following questions in the sermon: Is good-will between Jews and Christians a mere illusion? Or may it become a reality in a land in which the Spirit of Washington and Lincoln is not wholly dead? Is a basis for genuine good-will obtainable?

All are welcome.
