Now Is the Time

All records of book use, even beyond our imagination, were broken last Saturday at the Public library in Highland Park. It was a banner day in our history and the need for more space was never more keenly felt. Are you finding what you want for winter reading? Now is the time, for this weather begins to anticipate the spring gardening and the winter reading time will be over until 1932.

Lincoln's Birthday

The library does not close on Lincoln's birthday.
