

This Week's Services at Local Churches

First United Evangelical Church

Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor

The sermon subjects for next Sunday should interest everybody. At 10:45 a.m. the pastor will speak on "Causes of Spiritual Depression." At 7:45 p.m. he will preach on "Where will you spend eternity?" Good singing, congregational and special, at every service. The Bible school meets at 9:30 a.m. Lesson subject, "Jesus the Friend of Sinners," Luke 7:36-50. Read the entire chapter. The aim of the lesson is to show that all need to be saved, and to make plain razing. Come and bring your friends.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p.m. Topic, "What is implied in 'The Church as a family'?" We are glad to see the room well filled at these meetings. They are really interesting.

Wednesday evening is prayer meeting night. Keep it open for that purpose. Praying people are the preserving element today. People who really know God will take a delight in this form of spiritual exercise. Come!

The Mission band will meet at the church on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The members are requested to bring their mite boxes. A most interesting program is being planned.

Quite a number of our people attended the service at the Gospel mission at Lake Forest on last Friday evening. Our pastor was the preacher. Rev. John Warn, pastor of the Immanuel Swedish Baptist church of Chicago, will preach at the mission on Friday evening of this week. The "Immanuel gospel four" will sing.

The prayer meeting in association with our branch work at Waukegan is growing in interest and attendance. It is held every Tuesday evening in a private home. The service on last Sunday afternoon was very encouraging in interest and attendance.

He that believeth on Him (Jesus Christ) is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." John 3:18.

"All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Rom. 3:23.

"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Rom. 5:1-2.

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold all things are become new." 2 Cor. 5:17.

This congregation will conduct a friendly visitation among its members and adherents during the week of Feb. 15-22.

The Lenten season will again be ushered in during this week. During this season Sunday evening services will be held at 7:30 o'clock at which services the pastor will speak on a series of topics under the general subject of "Beliefs that matter." During this pre-Easter season the members and friends of the congregation are asked to join in a united church attendance campaign. Churches in every denomination concentrate in special efforts to deepen the spiritual life during this time of the year. You can help to realize certain aims and objectives of your church by your hearty co-operation and attendance at all the services of your church. Be assured of a cordial welcome at all the services and activities of this church.

Highland Park Methodist Church

North Avenue at Lauretta Place

Rev. Frank Davidson Hopkins, Minister

Next Sunday morning the pastor gives the fourth of the series of talks on John 3:16, taking for his theme the clause, "— for whosoever believeth on Him" or "The Reasonableness of Faith." Those attending the series thus far express much appreciation of these discourses and there is in them much food for spiritual nourishment.

If there are Methodist people in our community who are seeking for a place for real service where their efforts will bear fruit amply repaying them for time and effort expended they will find the opportunity here. We invite you to join with us in our work. We can use Sunday school teachers, especially young men, Epworth league workers and singers, as well as others.

The Woman's Missionary society met with Mrs. Julius Laegerle, on Skokie avenue, last Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed an interesting lesson and a pleasant social hour.

Next Sunday evening all our people are urged to unite with the Highland Park Methodist church in their regular evening service and to consider together matters of vital importance to our churches and community.
