"The Virtuous Sin" Among Features at Deerpath Theatre

"Just Imagine," the only thing new under the sun, dwarfing the past and the present, illuminating and glorifying the future, will be shown at the Deerpath theatre on Thursday and Friday nights.

Saturday "River's End" with Chas. Bickford, David Torrence, Junior Coughlan, Evalyn Knapp, and Zasu Pitts will be shown.

"Free Love" which is adapted from Sidney Howard's play, "Half Gods," will be shown Sunday and Monday. The cast includes Miss Tobin, Conrad Nagel, Zasu Pitts, George Irving and several other notables.

Walter Huston, Paramount featured player who triumphed most recently in Abraham Lincoln, and whose performance as the general in "The Virtuous Sin," which is showing on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, marks him as the latest qualified neophyte to the ranks of individual stars, is a native of Canada. "Her Man" will also be featured these three days.

Friday "Tol'able David" the famous Joseph Hergesheimer story adapted to the talking screen by Columbia pictures is to be featured.

Tol'able David, Story of Fame, Filmed

"Tol'able David," the best story from the pen of the celebrated author, Joseph Hergesheimer, has been made into an all-talking film. Joseph Hergesheimer has the reputation of writing books of more than temporary significance. "Tol'able David" is an excellent example of the truth of this statement. Judging from its popularity through the past years, it gives promise of remaining one of the classics.

Due to the popularity of "Tol'able David," which was read by untold numbers of people, extraordinary care was exercised in choosing the cast. One hundred and seventy two tests were made for a suitable actor to play the title role. He had to possess a certain combination of characteristics to portray the character as described by Hergesheimer. As a result of these tests, Richard Cromwell, an unknown was designated for the part. He is a handsome youngster with that charm and naivete that make him ideal. Others in the cast are Joan Peers, Noah Beery, Henry B. Walthall, Edmund Breese and George Duryea. John G. Blystone directed.

Because of his Russian military training, Alexis Davidoff was assigned to a technical advisory capacity with Directors Louis Gasnier and George Cukor, when Paramount began recording on "The Virtuous Sin," talking picture edition of the Lajos Ziladhy play, "The General."

Davidoff also plays the part of an officer in this feature, supporting such

Abraham Lincoln Is Feature at Genesee

The Genesee theatre, Waukegan, will present an unusually attractive program of pictures for next week.

Tonight, Friday and Saturday, D. W. Griffith's "Abraham Lincoln," the United Artists' all-dialogue screen romance of the Emancipator's life, with more than 110 principal speaking players in the cast will be shown.

Sunday "The Painted Desert" with William Boyd and Helen Twelvetrees will be presented, while on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday "Scandal Sheet" with George Bancroft, Kay Francis and Clive Brook are to be featured. "No Limit" with Stuart Erwin, and Harry Green are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

favorites at Walter Huston, Kay Francis, Kenneth MacKenna and Jobyna Howard.

The son of General Dimitri Davidoff, the technical worker is a member of a Russian military family. His father served in four wars for Russia, and his brother, Andre, was commander of the Imperial Guards.
