BOY SCOUT DRIVE IS PAST HALF-WAY MARK

Time Limit Extended to Feb. 24; Reports from Districts Are Announced

With a total of $28,790.00 reported subscribed toward the $50,000 needed by the North Shore Area Boy Scout council, the campaign was well past the half way mark Tuesday night, following a conference of the 11 districts chairmen and 65 team captains held in the Green Tea Pot at Highland Park, according to the records of the campaign treasurer, Samuel Insull, Jr.

By decision of the chairmen and captains, the period of solicitation was extended one week, to give four districts additional time necessary to complete their quotas. The conference voted to set Tuesday, Feb. 24, as the date when every worker will be expected to finish his work. R. Arthur Wood who presided at the meeting, received pledges from every chairman that he and his teams would do their utmost to put his town over the top by that day. Reports from

Open Dinner Meeting High School P. T. A. To Be Thursday March 5

The attention of the entire community is called to the open dinner meeting of the Deerfield-Shields high school Parent-Teacher association, which will be held Thursday, March 5, at 6 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The speaker will be S. A. Hamrin, of the department of education of Northwestern university, and his subject is "Some practical aspects of articulating the school systems of the community."

Since this subject is of interest to parents of grammar school children as well as high school, an invitation is extended to all persons interested. The dinner reservations are limited to the capacity of the cafeteria, and tickets may be obtained from the following chairmen in each community:

Mrs. Fred Dickerson, Lake Forest 559; Mrs. M. O. Hopkins, Deerfield, 346; Mrs. W. W. Reichardt, H. P. 444; Mrs. Frank Gault, H. P. 1034; Mrs. B. A. Hamilton, H. P. 921; Mrs. Henry Liske, Highwood 3325, and Mrs. T. M. Bradford, Lake Bluff 85.

Persons not able to get to the dinner are cordially invited to come in for the talk at 7:45.

Presidents of grammar school Parent-Teacher associations are requested to extend this invitation to their groups.

Masons Meet Tonight

A. O. Fay lodge will hold its Regular meeting this evening (Thursday, Feb. 19) after which the third degree will be conferred.

All Masons are invited to attend.

Highland Park Music Club Meets Feb. 25th; Fine Program Planned

The Highland Park Music club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bard on North St. Johns avenue, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday, Feb. 25, with Mrs. Jirah Cole, Mrs. W. H. Mast, Mrs. J. D. Laurie, and Mrs. E. J. Christenson assisting the hostess.

The program will be one of unusual merit for in the first number while Mrs. Plant reads Van Dyke's poem, "The Lost Word," Mrs. Carleton Vail at the piano will play a very lovely music setting which she herself has composed. The club is proud to honor the creative genius of its members. In the second group the club welcomes Miss Priscilla Carver, a guest artist, who will play a two piano number with Mrs. Ralph Bard. The program concludes with a group of duets by Mrs. Wm. C. Pohrte and Mrs. Geo. Hinn with Mrs. Karl A. Roth at the piano.

Reading—
The Lost Word Van Dyke
Music setting by Mrs. Carleton Vail
Mrs. Wm. Plant
Mrs. Vail at the piano

Two Pianos—

Dr. H. F. Branch to Speak Here Sunday

On Sunday morning, Feb. 22, at eleven o'clock, the Rev. Harold Francis Branch, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Chicago Heights, Ill., will preach in the Highland Park Presbyterian church. Dr. Branch is not only a successful pastor and preacher, but also an author. Among his books are "Christ's Ministry and Passion in Art," and "Sermons on Great Paintings." All those who have no church home in Highland Park are invited to worship in the Highland Park Presbyterian church.

New P. O. Building for Lake Forest

The following telegram received yesterday afternoon speaks for itself.

Washington, D. C.

Paul L. Udell,
Highland Park, Ill.

Deficiency Bill reported in House today carries one hundred sixty thousand dollars for site and post office building at Lake Forest.

Carl A. Chindblom,
Congressman.

While Mr. Udell was in Washington recently Congressman Chindblom assured him that in the very near future there would be a bill carrying an appropriation for a new federal building and site for Highland Park.

RAVINIA VILLAGE VARIETIES, MAR. 6-7

Unique and Entertaining Program to Be Given by Local talent; Details

To tell or not to tell, that's the question. Too much cannot be told now about the Ravinia "Village Varieties" to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings March 6 and 7 in the auditorium of the Ravinia school. But you are assured one of the funniest, one of the most serious, best produced revues Ravinia has ever attempted.

The performance is divided into three parts, to be presented in the ratio of two funny to one serious. That's fair enough.

Part One is called "Liz's Strata" and takes place in Onion Breath Mike's Eating House. A cast of fifty (more or less) will entertain you with mirth-provoking "goings-on." Original—written and produced by Robert Grinnell—this sketch promises to out-step all previous productions. Talent you have never suspected has been unearthed and fitted into the act. Rowdy in spots, sentimental and keen in places—be sure to see this Ravinia masterpiece.

Part Two

Mrs. Robert McKnight is responsible for Part Two. "The Wedding" a one act play by John Kirkpatrick is to be presented with an all-star cast consisting of Edward Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Vail, Miss Bernice Bentley, Orrin McCorison, George Prindle and Ethel Lynn. The play has been in rehearsal for several weeks. It is a sparkling comedy that develops an unusual story.

Part Three is the work of James Cady Ewell and associate performers. The scenic effect of this act will be worth the price of admission. Frederick V. Degenhardt has devised the setting and under his direction the mammoth spectacle has been built. What comprises this act will be kept a deep, dark secret to be revealed in subsequent issues of this paper.

And too there will be a fast-moving series of Quickies—those fascinating Quippies that know no speed limit.

Two performances—Friday and Saturday nights, March 6 and 7 at the Ravinia school auditorium. Don't forget the dates. Tickets are now on sale and may be had by calling Mr. Walter Rietz, H. P. 1779. Your cooperation will swell the Auditorium Maintenance Fund, the proceeds of which pay the expenses involved by all community meetings held in the auditorium.

Returns from New York

Mr. Arthur M. Lowrie of Ravinia park, has just returned from New York where he spent the past six weeks. He went east to make arrangements for the opera season at Ravinia park next summer.
