School Psychologist at High School Is Leaving

Mr. Richardson, Deerfield-Shields school psychologist, who has been with the high school since the fall of 1925, is leaving this week to start work with Proctor and Gamble, Cincinnati, Ohio.

As personnel psychologist, Mr. Richardson's work there will consist of testing the ability of employes in order to fit the task of the individual more perfectly.

Cast of High School Senior Play Chosen

The fall cast for the Deerfield-Shields senior play has been tentatively selected, according to the Shoreline.

Mildred Hobart, has the part of the heroine, and playing opposite her in the role of boy-friend, is "Chuck" Rogers.

The leads are supported by a cast of 15 other students. The young society girls are Allene Smith, Joy Brownlee, Margaret Coxe, and Alice Mulvihill. The society matron is Ella McEwen, and Dorothy Gleiser plays a very difficult part.

The young men who have parts in the performance are Robert Lester, Paul Rubly, Bud Long, David La Hue, Marshall Joyce, Hugh Wolf, Kenneth Masonic, Adolph Jantz, and Frank Straight. With the exception of one, every senior session in school is represented.
