

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her make your local newspaper interesting.

MRS. ROBERT PETTIS, Local Editor

Grand and Deerfield aves., Deerfield, Ill., telephone Deerfield 485

Deerfield Locals

Joseph Lincoln Gibson of the North Shore Circuit Guild, Winnetka Drama club, and many other organizations, spoke at a meeting of the Northbrook Thespians on Wednesday evening, Feb. 25 at the Northbrook school. Mr. Gibson received his early training in the Deerfield Grammar school. He has spent the past ten years trooping in dramatic circles.

The Mueller family who purchased the James O'Connor farm and bought the butter and egg business of the late George Tucker moved to Chicago last week. Mr. Mueller met with business reverses.

The Ingram Rasmussen family of Highland Park has rented the Robert Yoe Williams house on Westgate road. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and family moved to Highland Park last week.

An appeal for good used clothing is being made by the Deerfield Relief organization. Contributions may be left with Mr. W. K. Hout of the Deerfield pharmacy or with Mrs. William Tennermann, 1020 Oakley avenue, near Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cray of Northbrook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pettis on Friday evening.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Bethlehem Evangelical church has been divided into four groups—The Sunshine group of which Mrs. Arthur Merner is chairman, entertained at a Washington tea on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 24, at the church. Another group, which as yet has not selected a name, met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Milton Frantz.

Have you any work for some of Deerfield's unemployed? If so, call Deerfield 22, where those desiring work have registered.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens and Miss Elsie Tate of Chicago were Sunday guests at the R. E. Pettis home.

The Independent Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ross Sherman.

The Royal Neighbors will celebrate the twentieth year of their local organization on Thursday evening, Feb. 26, with a very special program.

Mrs. Esther Ward Ball gave a piano recital on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 22 at the Lyon and Healy hall in Evanston. Mrs. Ball is associated with the Victor Heinze School of Artistic Piano playing. She is the wife of the assistant principal of the Deerfield-Shields high school.

Mrs. Martha Lorenz of Northbrook will entertain the Areme club at her home on Monday, March 2.

The Deerfield Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday evening, Feb. 26.

"Sandwich Day" is every Friday at Deerfield-Shields. Students are asked to bring sandwiches to the main councilor post before 9 a. m. They are taken to the Northwestern Settlement house.

The Sewing Guild of the Holy Cross church will meet Thursday afternoon (today) at the parish hall.

The American Legion Auxiliary is putting on a membership drive this week and all members are urged to pay their dues to Mrs. Alex Willman who is the district membership chairman.

The officers and promoters of the Altar and Rosary society met last Wednesday evening to formulate plans for a St. Patrick's party.

Mr. B. H. Kress, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kress, Mrs. Alex Willman and son Kress, were Sunday evening dinner guests at the Robert Greenslade home in Highland Park.

Miss Carolyn Stewart and Miss Frances Boyce of Chicago were the guests of Miss Miriam Stryker on last Wednesday. Miss Stryker returned to Chicago and spent several days with the girls.

Dorcas Circle One met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Leslie Brand. Dorcas Circle Two were luncheon guests of Mrs. John Dow of Osterman avenue on Thursday (today). Dorcas Circle Four is meeting this afternoon also at the manse with Mrs. Mark Andrews, the hostess.

An executive meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Thursday evening (tonight) at the home of Mrs. Alex Willman.

Miss Miriam Stryker spent the week-end with her sister Mrs. J. Kynett Haehlen of Dysart, Iowa. Mrs. Haehlen, who was Miss Laurel Stryker, teaches algebra and English in the Dysart Senior high school and Mr. Haehlen is principal of the Dysart Junior high.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor have a son born Sunday, Feb. 22 at their home in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allsbrow of Hazel avenue have been visiting at the Taylor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Taylor (Ruth Rockenbach) of Glen Ellyn with Mr. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Taylor of Vinton, Iowa, were dinner guests at the George Rockenbach home on Saturday evening.

The Deerfield Grammar school girls' basketball team defeated a team composed of high school freshmen by a score of 18 to 3 at the grade school gymnasium on Thursday evening. Miss Ethel Titus refereed the game.

Go to Springfield Regarding New Road to Be Built Soon

The Lake county supervisors road and bridge committee were in Springfield last week, because it was reported that a road from the south was to come through the Barrington Golf club grounds. The rumor was unfounded as it is to be east or west of the club, wherever the right of way is easier to purchase.

The supervisors who attended the meeting in Springfield are Messrs. Stanton, Rosing, Kelsey, Obey, and our local supervisor James O'Connor. They were accompanied by Mr. Lobdell, county superintendent of highways, and several Barrington men. They had the pleasure of meeting Hon. Ray Paddock and Rep. Richard Lyons and all reported an exceedingly fine trip.

Dinner Meeting of P. T. A. March 5

A dinner meeting of the Deerfield-Shields P. T. A. will be held Thursday evening, March 5, in the high school cafeteria. Dinner tickets may be secured from Mrs. M. O. Hopkins, Deerfield 346.

S. A. Hamrin of Northwestern university will speak on "Some Practical Aspects of Articulating the school systems of the community."

Those not able to attend the dinner are urged to come for the talk at 7:30.

Vesper Service Held at Bethlehem Church

The monthly concert of the orchestra of the Bethlehem Evangelical church was presented at the Vesper service on Sunday, Feb. 22.

Prelude	Dorothy Fehr
Song	Ansamblage
Melody in F	Rubinstein
Garden of Roses	Pratt
Orchestra
Song	Ansamblage
Invocation	Rev. A. P. Johnson
Duet	Arlene and Lois Fehr
Navy Proles	Hahn
Orchestra
Solo	Clayton Fehr
Cupids Garden	Eugene
American Home Songs	Ascher
Orchestra
Male Trio	Harold Peterson
Male Trio—Harold Peterson, Arthur Cashmore, Clayton Fehr.
Announcements and Offering
Offertory	Dorothy Fehr
Lustpiel Overture	Bela
Orchestra

Father Fielding Will Give Lecture March 17

On Tuesday evening, March 17, Father Fielding will give a stereopticon lecture on "A Trip to Ireland" at St. Patricks church hall of West Lake Forest, followed by a St. Patrick's dance. The Holy Cross St. Patrick's party is to be held on the evening of March 16.

Garden Club Holds Fine Meeting Feb. 18

The Garden club of Deerfield met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irving Brand.

Mrs. E. L. Scheidhelm of Wilmette was unable to be present, but her very instructive paper, "Continuous Bloom in the Garden," was read by Mrs. E. J. Ginter. The paper is now circulating among the members so that they may work out their border problems.

Mrs. Boyne H. Platt was selected as chairman for the Flower Show exhibit and will appoint her own committees.

The annual Flower Show is being sponsored by the Illinois Federation of Garden clubs this year and is to be held March 21 to 27 at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago.

Mrs. Brand was assisted by Mrs. A. R. Warner.

Weekly News Notes of St. Paul's Church

Our first Lenten service met with wonderful response. The beautifully illustrated hymns added very much to the success of the service. Sunday evening we shall again present 40 colored slides illustrating the hymns, "Jesus Shall Reign," "The Ninety and Nine," an "I Would See Jesus." We shall be glad to see you again Sunday evening. Come and bring a friend.

Members of the Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Antes, Deerfield avenue. Mrs. Geo. Meyer will lead the devotion and the discussion of the monthly topic, "Confirmation."

March 3 the Des Plaines basketball Tri-C society will present a three act comedy "Done in Oil" at the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium. Do not miss this opportunity for a good laugh and two hours of real entertainment.

March 3 the DesPlaines basketball team will play here. DesPlaines is making a fair bid for the championship. St. Paul's will have a strong team on the floor and a good game is assured.

J. Garrity Purchases Historic Property

The property on which the historic log cabin of Carrie and the late Christ Schar stood, has been purchased by J. P. Garrity, who is digging a basement and will move the modern cottage now occupied by Carrie Schar on to a new foundation. Plans for Miss Carrie's future are not decided.

Open Coffee Shop

Mrs. F. P. Browning of Warrington road, opened the Glenview Coffee Shop in the Glenview Recreation parlors building on Saturday.