Deerfield Boy to Fight at Antioch

On Friday, Feb. 27, Antioch Palace will be the scene of one of the finest fight cards ever put on in this district. A large crowd is expected as several of the bouts are follow up frays from previous fights.

Johnny Edwards mixes with Mickey Whiting in the 110 pound class and both fighters promise a good showing. In the 118 pound class Sandy Smith of Kenosha and George Herbesky of Waukegan are the principals.

Going to the 147 pound class, Johnnie Taylor of Waukegan and Bob Cannoffe will attempt to settle disputes to superiority. Bud Sidler, of Libertyville, will take on Don Merri-man, Waukegan star, in the 155 pound show. Semi windup, Mel Mullins of Deerfield will mix punches with Lu Sheppard of Racine, boxing at 127 pounds. Lloyd Mullins of Deerfield will take on George Nelson of Fort Sheridan at 139 pounds.

One of the features of the evening will be a heavyweight wrestling match which comes off as the climax of the boxing show.

Antioch Palace bouts will start at 8:15 and both men and women are welcome to attend.
