20th Anniversary Celebrated Thursday

The Royal Neighbor Camp 6802 of Deerfield celebrated the twentieth anniversary of its organization on Thursday evening, Feb. 26, at the Masonic Temple.

A short business meeting preceded the program.

June Gunkel sang two solos, "The Peanut Vender," and "Would You Like to Take a Walk?"

The Flora Dora Sextet, composed of Ruby Landau, Marian Stryker, Marcelline Juhrend, Gertrude Johnson, Violet Hagie, and Hazel Scully, danced and sang to tunes of 1900, then later appeared on the program in a 1931 skit. David Stryker accompanied the sextet on the piano.

Mrs. Charles Hagie sang two solos accompanied at the piano by her sister.

The Cadwell Corners Kitchen Band was very cleverly done. Their costumes were of earlier periods from colonial down to the Victorian age. Those participating in the band were Mrs. Anna Meintzer, Mrs. Celia Hagie, Mrs. Augusta Hagi, Mrs. Lulu Meyer, Mrs. E. Horenberger, Mrs. Lillian Johnston, Mrs. Philip Scully Sr., Mrs. Margaret Pettis, with Mrs. Emil Fredericks wielding the baton. Emeline Beckman accompanied the band, at the piano.

Mrs. Sadie Beckman gave a reading and Mrs. Emil Fredericks gave two readings, "The Bridge Party" and "At the Telephone."

Representatives from the camps of Wheeling, Prairie View, Waukegan and Highland Park, were present.

Coffee and cake were served in the dining hall and the tables were appropriately decorated in the Royal Neighbor colors — purple and white. The large birthday cake was made by Hilda Soefker.

The Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary meeting for March was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dan Hunt of Fair Oaks avenue, with Mrs. George Briggs as assisting hostess. There were about fifteen present.

The regular rehabilitation tax was sent to the state, and ten dollars was sent to the C.M.T.C. at Fort Sheridan for a volley ball.

The new constitution was approved as drawn, but will be read again at the following meeting.

Plans were completed for the card party to be given on Wednesday evening, March 11.

It was decided to have initiation of new members at the April meeting.

Mrs. Alex Willman's report on the membership drive was read and great satisfaction was expressed upon the splendid results.

The place of the next meeting is to be announced later.

High School Spring Concert on April 17

The date for the high school spring concert has been set for Friday evening, April 17. A noted woman soprano, a graduate of Deerfield-Shields, has been engaged as an added attraction.

No definite plans have been made as yet, but the program will consist of a group of opening selections by the orchestra, the singer, then a group of songs will be presented by the chorus. The band will play a group of selections.

Obituary

Arthur B. Jones was born Feb. 5, 1872, at Canton, Ohio, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Jones. He received his early education in the Madison, Ind., schools. He was a professor of music and in later years followed the trade of his father, that of interior and exterior decorator.

Mr. Jones was married March 25, 1894, to Miss Louise Burkenmeier of Madison, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Jones had five children, four of whom are living: Clifford Jones of Columbus, Ohio; William A. Jones of Waukegan; Mrs. Gladys Fattic of Deerfield; Richard Jones of Deerfield; a little son, Raymond, died at the age of three.

There are four grandchildren: Virginia Lee Jones and William Arthur Jones Jr., of Waukegan; Rose Marie Fattic and Gloria Lou Fattic of Deerfield.

A sister, Mrs. Josephine Dressendorfer, resides in Cleveland, Ohio. One brother, J. H. Jones, lives in Evanston, and the other brother, Harry E. Jones, in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Jones was taken to the Lake County Hospital on Jan. 6, and remained there until his death on Feb. 18, due to hardening of the arteries.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Feb. 23, at the home of his son, William Jones of Waukegan, with burial in Memorial Park cemetery at Evanston.
