Highland Park Methodist Church
 North Ave. at Lauretta Pl.

Rev. F. D. Hopkins, Minister

In these days of worry and anxiety, of need and deprivation, many a heart grows sick with fear. There is a remedy for this and next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the theme, "The remedy for Fear."

Our Sunday school showed a good gain over the corresponding Sunday for last year and the preceding Sunday in attendance last Sunday. The Young Men's class is showing renewed life and activity and invites back all its former members and all other older boys of around high school age.

The Epworth league's next social evening for young people will be Thursday evening, March 12. All our young people are urged to be present.

The pastor has been invited to speak next Sunday evening at one of his former charges, Willard Memorial church, Oak Park, by the young peoples class of the church, which will have charge of the evening service on that date.
