

THE EARLY AMERICAN MODE IN MAPLE FURNITURE

A home is scarcely complete, these days, without at least one corner . . . one lovely nook . . . furnished consistently in Early American fashion. And nothing so perfectly responds to this need as the maple furniture which comprises our extensive collection. For example:

A Visitor Will Approve This Guest-Room Suite

It's Quaint and Cozy . . . at $59.75

Dresser, $27.95

Bed, $14.95

Chest, $16.85

Absolutely authentic in style and finish this four-poster bed with complementing dresser and chest makes an admirable set for guest room, child's room . . . or any bedroom. And you will be amazed at the sturdy construction and excellent workmanship available at this low price.

Maple and Chintz Chair, $4.95

DELIGHTFUL PIECES IN MAPLE FOR "HERE" AND FOR "THERE"

Comfy Fireside Chair $24.95

Covered in gay chintz, this fireside chair is a reproduction of an old Cape Cod original. Different types, too.

Book-Rack-Smoker at $12.95

This combination magazine-rack and smoking stand lends an attractive touch to your Early American setting.

Colonial Lamp Silhouettes at $3.95 $1

A demure chintz shade charmingly completes this lamp made in true Colonial style . . . electrified, of course!

These small pictures . . . silhouettes and other types . . . go far toward completing your Early American ensemble.

Eagle Colonial Mirror at $9.95

How About a Hooked Rug?

Or one of our colorful oval rugs? They permit a wide selection in patterns and colorings of Colonial days. Priced from $1 to $18.95

Furniture, Rugs - Third Floor

WIEBOLDT'S - EVANSTON

Davis Street

Have You Opened Your Charge Account?

DAVIS 1000