Landscape Architect Believes Garden Show Will Be One of Best

Mr. Franz Lipp, landscape architect, and official adviser to the Garden and Flower show of the Garden Club of Illinois at the Merchandise Mart, states that the show will be very promising.

He mentioned especially that the work of the individual garden clubs shows good ideas and great improvement in design compared to previous years. According to his opinion this show will be much better than any previous year.

Over 16,000 square feet will be covered by model gardens of the various types which undoubtedly will give garden lovers some good ideas for their own garden work.

The parks of Chicago also will show interesting layouts, especially the Lincoln park display, presenting a modern water garden with a spring planting of flowering crabapple, lilacs, weigelias, bleeding hearts, spring bulbs, and others.

The North Shore Horticultural society's flower display is contributed by the various North Shore estates and will be arranged as a Fountain Garden. A very good sculpture for this garden has been lent by Mr. O. J. W. Hansen, prominent Chicago sculptor.

Under co-operation of Mr. and Mrs. E. Chassaing, French sculptors, Mr. Lipp will contribute a modern garden which will be worked out in a color scheme of black and yellow with a southern planting effect.

Hold Man Alleged to Have Swindled Business Men of Highland Park

Richard D. O'Brien, 1029 Sheridan road, Chicago, a former colonization agent for the Frisco railroad, was arrested Tuesday and taken to Waukegan to face charges made by five Highland Park business men.

Justice Henry Wallenwein of Waukegan set O'Brien's bonds at $6,000 on a charge of operating a confidence game and of swindling the Highland Park men out of $6,000 in a deal involving the purchase of several thousand acres in the Missouri Ozarks two years ago. Preliminary hearing will be held March 26.

While a colonization manager for the railroad, according to the business men, O'Brien persuaded them to buy a large tract of land in a location which he intended to sell to settlers. The land was never bought, and the men declare they were swindled. The land is said to be located in a remote part of the Missouri Ozarks.

State's Attorney A. V. Smith has been searching for O'Brien for some time, but it was not until yesterday that he agreed to come to Waukegan and give bond.

Junior Workshop Starts Rehearsals for "The Dover Road"

It has long been a regrettable fact that Highland Park and Ravinia, with all their interest in dramatic work, are the only North Shore communities which have never produced a full three-act play. Minstrel shows, revues and one-act plays have been easily and well produced, meeting with undeniable success. And inspired by the knowledge that there is interest in any serious endeavor, a group was formed, the Junior Workshop, which hopes eventually to achieve what the North Shore Circuit theatre, the Evanston Town and Gown, and other groups have done.

The first active step has been taken by the Junior Workshop, and "The Dover Road" by A. A. Milne is already in rehearsal under the very competent direction of Mr. Jeffrey Baker who has worked successfully with the North Shore Circuit theatre. Mr. Baker is a graduate of Harvard and did a great deal in dramatics there, besides making a name for himself in Boston, with the Newton Players. Under his direction such progress has been made that the Junior Workshop is announcing April 18 as the date of production.

Last fall Miss Gertrude Williams, who will have a leading part in the Workshop's next production, conceived the idea of a group such as the Junior Workshop, and she and Mr. Guernsey Le Pelley wrote and produced two one-act plays in order to give the community an impression of the material and objective of the group. Because the Junior Workshop has been given the privilege of using the Ravinia Village House, they are anxious to make some contribution to the maintenance fund as well as establish a name for themselves among little theatre organizations. Hence any profit from the play to be given will be turned over to the Ravinia Village House maintenance fund.—Contributed.
