

Deerfield Locals

Miss Frances Brown was hostess of the Teachers' bridge club at her home in Wilmette Thursday evening. Miss Mildred Newton will be the next hostess.

Mrs. Emilia Benz spent Saturday and Sunday at the R. F. Cooksey home on Woodward avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krause were hosts at a St. Patrick's party, Saturday evening, at their home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. C. M. Willman and family spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Renning of Glenview.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson will entertain their bridge club on Thursday evening (tonight) at their home on Chestnut street.

A delegation of women interested in the organization of the Deerfield Women's club attended a meeting of the Tenth District Federation of Women's clubs held Tuesday at North Chicago.

Miss Luella Willman entertained the L. L. L. club at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. John Willman on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinze of Wilmette were guests at the Harry Clavey home Sunday evening.

Among those from Deerfield who attended the Golden Gloves tournament in Chicago on Wednesday evening are R. F. Cooksey, Eugene Cooksey, Marshall Pottenger, Irwin Lagge and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobson.

Mrs. Edwin Beckman attended a meeting of the Rebekah lodge in Highland Park Monday evening.

Jean Cruikshank celebrated her birth anniversary on Monday afternoon, at a neighborhood party.

The Charles Frye family spent Sunday with relatives in Ringwood, Ill.

Clarence Repenning, who has been visiting at the E. J. Long home, departed Thursday for his home in Pontiac, Michigan.

To stimulate interest in the mystery of the senior class play at Deerfield-Shields, to be presented Saturday evening, small blotters bearing sinister questions were distributed among the students last week. Some of the questions were: "Who?", "Why?", "Are you superstitious?", "Do you believe in the supernatural?" and "Where were you the night he was murdered?"

Russell and Harold, the small sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mau, are recovering from chicken pox. Wallace Petersen is also quarantined for chicken pox.

Little Caroline Henthorn, who has just recovered from the mumps, now has pleurisy.

An Easter cantata, "Life Everlasting," is to be presented by members of the Bethlehem Evangelical church choir.

A housewarming was held Saturday evening at the new Northern Service headquarters, of the Northern Illinois Public Service company, near Glenview. Among those from Deerfield who attended are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wagbeck, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. John Radeke.

Mrs. Mary Lee of Blue Island spent several days of last week at the Peter Petersen home on Elm street. On Sunday Mrs. Lee left to visit relatives in Waukegan.

Mr. Ralph Lemley of Cleveland, O., is a house guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Spriggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully entertained at bridge Saturday evening at their home on Oakley avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Winters who have been staying at the August Winters home during the former's illness, have returned to their home in Wheeling.

The Gloden house on Hazel avenue has been rented by the Jensen family from Michigan.

Miss Verda Varner will be hostess to her bridge club on Friday evening at her home on Elm street.

On Tuesday, Mrs. C. M. Willman and Mrs. C. V. Steiner attended the Star club at the home of Mrs. C. D. Rugen of Glenview.

Mrs. Le Roy Scully entertained at a St. Patrick's luncheon on Tuesday at her home on Osterman avenue.

Miss Pauline Hout of Lovington, Ill., is visiting at the home of her brother, W. K. Hout of Warrington road.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle spent Monday with her sister Mrs. Taylor of Glenview.

The district council of the American Legion is to meet Friday evening, March 20, in Highland Park. Past State Commander Hayes is to be the speaker.

Misses Ann, Rose, Katherine and Mary English of Evanston were the guests of their sister Mrs. Irving Brand on Monday.

Miss Ethel Titus was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lange of Libertyville.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Luella Knigge and Charles Hatch. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch are residing at the Clyde Hatch home.

Mrs. Irving Brand spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. English of Evanston.

Miss Mabel Ablard was the weekend guest of her brother, James Ablard of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Elizabeth Axline of Wilmette was the dinner guest of her sister Mrs. Kerler of Saunders road on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine and son Norbit were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sullivan of Highland Park on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. W. Clark, Miss Charlotte Brand, Mrs. Leslie Brand and Mrs. Irving Brand attended the Friday Night Dinner club at the home of Miss Edith Hansen of Highland Park.

There were no services in the Bungalow church on Sunday evening. Members attended a pageant, "Follow Thou Me," at the Bethany Evangelical church of Highland Park, given by the Trinity Evangelical church of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who have been visiting at the home of their son, Guy Miller of Hazel avenue, returned on Saturday to their home in Michigan, after a three weeks visit in Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scheer attended the funeral of Mr. Scheer's brother, Mr. George Scheer of Chicago on Tuesday. Mr. Scheer is survived by his wife and a son, Carl.

The children of the Holy Cross were entertained at a St. Patrick's party on Sunday afternoon from two until four o'clock in the parish hall. The Boy Scouts of Troop 75 were hosts and bunco was the feature of the afternoon, followed by appropriate refreshments for the occasion.

St. Patrick's Party Successful Affair

The St. Patrick's idea was carried out in the hall decorations, the wrappings of the prizes and in the refreshments of ice cream with a shamrock molded in it and in the green frosted cakes, at the St. Patrick's card party given Monday evening in the Holy Cross parish house. It was a pivot party and a prize was awarded each table. Mrs. Peters of Highland Park received the surprise package which was a lovely cake and Mrs. Earl Frost received the door prize.

The members of the committee for the card party were: Mrs. P. J. Duffy, Miss Clara Ender, Mrs. L. Gloden, Misses Agnes and Florence Gloden, Mrs. John Klemp, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Mooney, Mrs. Henry Petersen, Mrs. William Desmond, Mrs. Hubert McGuire, Mrs. Felix Earnest, and Mrs. Earl Frost.

Discuss Merger of Women's Activities

Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Jacob Pfeiffer of Evanston spoke to the women of the Presbyterian church. She told of the work being done by women in various Presbyterian churches in and around Chicago, in which all the women's organizations of each church were merged into one association, with one set of officers over the entire project. She mentioned several ways that the women's activities might be merged, with a federated meeting once a month and then the many circles, Dorcas and Missionary society functioning as usual.

The Missionary society is meeting on Thursday afternoon (today) at which time the merging will be discussed. It will also be brought before the members of the Dorcas society at their next meeting.

The purpose of the merger is to increase the number of women workers in the church.

Junior Garden Club to Visit Conservatory

Owing to the stormy weather, the Junior Garden club met Monday afternoon, March 16, instead of the preceding week. Interesting chalk talks were given by the children, each giving a plan of his or her own garden for the coming year.

The second meeting of the month, which was scheduled for next Monday, is to be substituted with a trip to the Garfield Park conservatory to see the Easter display. Definite plans for transportation and the date of the trip will be announced later. Mrs. M. O. Hopkins, Mrs. Carleton Scribner and Mrs. E. B. Jordan will supervise the trip.

Miss Gayle Bornemann, who is staying at the Towall Johnson home on Chestnut street, spent Friday at the Jack Myers home.

Mrs. Ray Dobbins is attending a party at the home of Mrs. Joseph Peddle of Highland Park on Thursday (today).

Mr. Milo Schmalz of Lakeland Florida, who was en route to Brooklyn, New York, was a guest at the B. H. Kress home on Hazel avenue on Sunday.

P. T. A. to Elect Only Two Officers Each Year

The Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher association, at the March meeting, held Friday afternoon in the school gymnasium, decided to elect only two of the four officers each year, to avoid the retirement of all officers at once. One year the president and treasurer will be elected and the following year the vice-president and recording secretary. The following nominating committee was appointed:

Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok
Mrs. H. A. Olendorf
Mrs. John Stryker.

Upon recommendation of the executive committee, the P. T. A. voted to charge a rental fee of five dollars to all organizations using the kitchen equipment and dishes at the school.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle, chairman of the program committee, announced that Mrs. C. R. Sugdon would have charge of the next meeting and it would be an exhibition of the work she had accomplished with the pupils in physical education.

Mrs. C. E. Piper, president of the P. T. A., disposed of the business in her usual effective and capable manner, after which the following program was presented:

Richard Hoffman—Assembly.
Katharine Kauffman—Piano solo, "Etude Migration" by Edward Schutt.
Camp Fire Girls—Songs.
Marcia Smith—"Summertime," original recitation.
Clifford Robinson—Mouth organ solo.
Doris Ott—Piano solo.
Gene Bowers—Dance, accompanied by Lois Sturtevant.
Mary Cashmore—Clarinet solo, accompanied by Miss Brown.
Dorothy Bonson—Recitation, "Somebody's Mother."
Richard Hoffman—Horn solo, "Springtime in the Rockies."
June Gunckel—"Peanut Vender," accompanied by Miss Nygard.
Tommy Coleman—Recitation.
Billy Clouse—Piano solo, "Anvil Chorus."
John Stryker—Recitation.
Harold Ray and Frank Warren—Stunts.
Jane Todd—Piano solo, "The Blind Harp Player," accompanied by Mrs. A. M. Virgil.

Celebrate Silver Wedding Saturday

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson of Greenwood avenue were overwhelmingly surprised by about forty relatives and friends from Chicago and vicinity who came to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mrs. Olson's father, Mr. A. Sahlberg of St. Cloud, Minn. There were some very fine singers among the guests who gave a delightful concert. Mrs. Wilson of the Sunday Evening club, Mrs. Samuelson and Miss Irene Hallberg, singers in the Ebenezer Lutheran church of Edgewater were the entertainers. The guests brought the entire buffet supper and a beautiful cake decorated with silver leaves. They presented Mr. and Mrs. Olson a gorgeous bouquet of flowers and a bag of silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson remained until Tuesday. From Deerfield they will visit relatives in Danville, Ill., and Memphis, Tenn., following the Mississippi river to the Gulf of Mexico and on to Galveston, Tex. On their return trip they will again visit at the Olson home, before leaving for their home in St. Cloud, Minn.