

last call for Easter Cleaning

Hundreds of the best dressed men and women in Highland Park's Easter parade will be wearing garments that have been beautifully renewed and restyled by our Miracle-clean process.

The fact that a majority of Highland Parkers depend upon Miraclelean to keep their clothes charmingly attractive for all occasions, is a glowing tribute to the merits of this superior method of dry cleaning.

Those who are not regular Shore Line patrons owe it to their appearance to try Miraclelean at once.

Phone Highland Park
3400

Household Services

Housecleaning is an investment of effort that pays its dividends in satisfaction . . . and it pays particularly large dividends when Shore Line is entrusted with servicing of drapes, rugs, scarfs, curtains and other household cleanables.

Henry Glos Dies; Funeral Held Tuesday

Henry Glos was born March 4, 1853, and passed away March 21, 1931, at the age of 78. Mr. Glos was a son of Jacob and Christena Ott of Northfield. He was married to Miss Emilia Knochenmuss of Chicago in 1879, where they resided until 1885 when they moved to Northbrook, their place of residence ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Glos had five children, two dying in infancy.

Mr. Glos is survived by his widow, and three children: Mrs. Grace Flint of Highland Park, Mrs. Ruth Notz of Deerfield and Raymond Glos of Freeport, Ill. There are five grandchildren, Alice and Grace Arlene Flint, Raymond Glos Jr., and John Robert Notz Jr., and William Notz. A sister Mrs. Ellen Glos Meierhoff lives in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. Glos was a justice of the peace in Northbrook for forty-four consecutive years and a member of the Glenview lodge, A. F. & A. M.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, March 24, at the Forest Home chapel, with interment at Forest Home.

Deerfield Grammar School

Last Thursday the girls and boys of the upper grades had a very close basketball game. The score was 8 to 8 when the whistle blew. During the two minutes of extra play Alice Simmons made a basket from the center of the floor, which won the game for the girls. These two teams will play a series of three games.

Freda Boone has returned to school after a four weeks absence.

Betty Cunningham received a 100 perfect spelling lessons' certificate last Monday.

Gloria Cole, Jim Flanagan, Barbara Ashman, Marjory Jo Lawless, and John Klemp have returned to school.

The boys of Miss Evenson's room have been rehearsing the play "Pie, Pickle, Ham" to be presented at the next assembly.

A moving picture program consisting of "The Diary of a Boy Scout" and "Greece Through a Doughnut" was presented after school on Thursday. Any child who wished could stay for it. The Boy Scout picture showed life at a scout camp and the other showed Greece, especially the ancient parts, pillars and buildings.

The Girl Reserves had a chili supper at the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. on Thursday evening, March 19.

The English club organized in Miss Brown's room, has elected the following officers: President, Billy Clouse; secretary, June Gunckel; librarian, Charles Mele.

The picture, "The Boy and the Rabbit" was received from the Cream of Wheat Co. by Miss Jean Nygard's room for having three-fourths of the class eating a hot cooked cereal three times a week during the month of January.

Bakery Sale April 4

The Philathea class of the Bethany church are holding an Easter sale on Saturday, April 4th. Easter baskets, Easter eggs, home made candy, bakery goods and aprons will be on sale. The place of the sale will be announced later.