D. A. R. Better Films Committee Review

An unusually varied program of pictures is to be shown this current week at the local theatre, running the gamut of emotions, mother-love tragic in its sacrifices, crook melodrama, adventures into forbidden fields, and the bravery and heroism of pioneers.

We note with great satisfaction that a most outstanding picture has been secured for the Saturday feature. "The Great Meadow" is a splendid picture with genuine historical value, portraying the trials and dangers of emigrants in the days of Daniel Boone. To those who are wearied of "covered wagons" we promise there are none, and we further suggest that in this day of pampered and indulged children and youths, and the reluctance of parents to require honest endeavor, character building sacrifices, and contributions from their children, such vivid convincing determination, suffering, deprivation and heroism is of great value.

All the family may unite in attending with the added word of warning that it is a strong picture, and not for very little tots.

"Mothers Cry" is interesting but heavily tragic story. It is humanly real, and has some humor, and is excellently acted. Rather mature.

"No Limit" Clara Bow portrays a guileless little usherette, who becomes involved in considerable adventure. Recommended for less critical audiences only.

"The Easiest Way" a well directed and up-to-date version of the stage play, with an anti-climax to give the picture a happy ending which is unconvincing and does not ring true. Constance Bennett and Adolphe Menjou have the leading roles. An adult only picture.

Says Income Tax in Lake County $1,200,000

Collections of income taxes in Lake county totalled $1,200,000 during the period which ended March 16, according to the estimate of Frank P. Worack, deputy collector of internal revenue in Waukegan.

The amount is less than 50 percent below that collected last year in Lake county when the estimated collections totaled $2,500,000.

While the number of reports filed compared with that of other years the amounts collected in taxes showed large decreases, due to the drop in incomes.

Bannockburn Garden Club Wins Many Honors Honors at Flower Show

The optimism and work of the Bannockburn Garden club for the fifth annual Flower Show of the Garden club of Illinois, were rewarded by winning the Garden Club of Illinois Medal for the best reproduction of a Shadow Scenic picture; also a blue ribbon on this exhibit. The picture done by Mrs. Paul Fuller was a reproduction of Maxfield Parrish' "Villa D'este Tivoli," and was cleverly worked out both in the fidelity to detail and resourcefulness in reproducing the spirit of the picture.

The sun room exhibit by Mrs. Edward Seese which won a red ribbon was carefully thought out to keep the plant material in harmony with the wrought iron standard.

Honorable mention was given the living room arrangement, a low bowl of white freezias done by Mrs. C. W. Torbet.

The formal dinner table in pastel shades by Mrs. Harry Wright was lovely in its simplicity altho not receiving a ribbon.

Mrs. Kenneth Towler deserves mention having sold over five hundred tickets.

Two acres of exhibition space on two floors of the Merchandise Mart have been transformed into a labyrinth of evergreen and floral beauty and out of this will come suggestions for thousands of home gardens as well as home decorations.

The flower show each year is the spontaneous expression of garden lovers all over the Chicago area, and with the continued interest Chicago and suburbs may in the near future be known as the Garden City.

The next meeting of the Bannockburn Garden club will be held April 6, at the home of Mrs Arthur Harrison with a timely spring program on "Lilacs" by Mrs. C. C. Brackett.
