The Just Sew club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Johnston Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Johnson and two children and Mrs. Johnson's father, Mr. George Pettis, visited in Itaska, Ill., on Sunday.

The Dorcas society will meet Thursday, April 2, for an all-day meeting at the Presbyterian church. They will mend for the Dorcas home. A pot luck luncheon will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shekorski of 626 Onwentsia avenue, Highland Park, have moved into the Fred Meyer flat recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meyer. Mr. Shekorski is employed in McPherson's garage in Highland Park.

Mr. Charles Selig is taking an extended vacation from his duties as station agent for the C. M. & St. P. depot, because of illness in the family. Mr. Selig has held this position for the past thirty-five years. Mr. J. P. Condon, who has relieved Mr. Selig several times in the past few years, is again in charge.

Mr. Fred Bleimehl is still very ill. Dr. Davis and Dr. Sugdon took X-rays of him at his home on Sunday.

Mrs. William Selig and two children of Chicago visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig on Sunday.

Mrs. C. Hammer has been ill this past week and her mother, Mrs. Fred Selig, has been staying with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Labahn visited Mr. Labahn's mother in Evanston on Sunday.

Billy, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Amendt of Stratford road, is seriously ill, and will have to remain at home for a month.

Mrs. Earl Frost entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller spent Friday in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farner of River road entertained at their home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. William Steffes visited her brother, Mr. Henry Lancaster, in Chicago, Saturday. Mr. Lancaster is seriously ill.

Mrs. Harold Youngs will entertain her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Raymond Meyer attended a party at the home of Mrs. Joseph Peddle of Highland Park, last Thursday afternoon.

At the Missionary meeting held on Thursday at the Presbyterian church, it was decided to appoint a committee to form a commission to discuss the merging of all women's activities of the church. There will be two representatives from the Missionary society, two from the Dorcas society, and two from the congregation to be appointed by the session. The merger is to be acted upon slowly, and cautiously studied. Mrs. Pfeiffer of Evanston has signified her willingness to appear again and be of assistance if necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perry are expected home this week or next from Riverside, Michigan, where they spent the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anderson.

Russell Eggert of Chicago spent the week-end at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bendt Jr. of Hazel avenue. Sad is the week-end that Russell cannot attend the Deerfield movies with his little Bendt cousins. He claims that Deerfield movies surpass all Chicago shows!

Mrs. Emil Fredericks will entertain the Dorcas Circle Four at luncheon, Thursday, at her home on Central avenue.

Mrs. Paul Fuller and her shadow picture, exhibited at the Garden club show at the Merchandise Mart, were pictured in the Chicago Daily News Saturday evening. Her picture was a reproduction and was made with sponges. It was one of the Bannockburn exhibits and received a blue ribbon.

Miss Opal Neal of North Chicago was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhlke on Sunday.

Ray Hoffman of Glenview visited at the Fred Horenberger home on Sunday.
