

MAKING PROGRESS GARDEN FAIR PLANS

ketware, pottery and china, such as was shown during Better Homes week last year; garden books, games and novelties.

Children will play a prominent part in the events of May 9th. The children's committee is planning a grand surprise which will be of interest to every kid in Highland Park. This surprise will soon be divulged. Watch the columns of this paper!

We will tell you one secret this week, children: There will be ponies, and a chance to ride them!

The chairmen of the committees in charge of the fair are the following: General and publicity chairman, Mrs. E. H. Klaber; tea room, Mrs. D. C. Watson; plants, Mrs. F. Wicks; bulbs and seeds, Mrs. F. C. Atwill; books, Mrs. A. I. Woolf; textiles and novelties, Mrs. M. J. Hardacre; pottery and glassware, Mrs. R. L. Thorsch and Mrs. Danielson; children's activities, Mrs. E. H. Gleason; pony rides, Mrs. L. W. Frank; garden furniture, Mrs. H. H. Bede; home products, Mrs. B. J. Buckingham; garden tools, Mrs. R. McKnight.

Mrs. Mary Wessling, Pioneer Resident Passes Away March 22

Mrs. Henry Wessling passed away Sunday evening, March 22, at the age of 83 years.

Mary Salome Brand was born October 12, 1847, on a farm now included in the Village of Deerfield and now owned by the Frank Sack family. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brand Jr. When she was six months old the family moved to a farm in Northfield. She attended the Grove and Wilmot schools. The family's next move was to a farm at the corner of Saunders and Deerfield roads. In 1883 the Brand family moved to Highland Park.

Mary Brand was married March 2, 1871, to Henry L. Wessling. They had four daughters, three of whom are living, Mrs. John Stryker (Blanche), Mrs. Milton Frantz (Pearl), and Miss Laura Wessling. She has six grandchildren and three brothers, Jacob Brand of St. Petersburg, Fla., Enoch and Orson Brand of Highland Park.

Mrs. Wessling was a pioneer Deerfield woman, a daughter of a pioneer mother who lived to be ninety-six years old. She had a cheerful disposition and great religious contentment marked her days.

Mr. Wessling passed away May 5, 1920. After his death, Mrs. Wessling, and Miss Laura gave up their big house and moved into the Milton Frantz apartment, but moved back to the big house again when her daughter, Mrs. John Strkyer and family moved there too. Mrs. Wessling had a keen memory of pioneer life, especially of Au Plain Evangelical church, of farm life at that time, the schools and so many historical events of interest.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, March 26, at 1:30 at the home and at 2:00 o'clock at the Bethlehem Evangelical church with burial at Northfield.

Miss Biederstadt's Piano Pupils Hold Recital

The regular practice recital and criticism class conducted every two months by piano pupils of Miss Frances Biederstadt, was held Saturday afternoon in the primary room of the Deerfield Presbyterian church. This class is for the younger pupils, but two pupils of the advanced class, Carl Kinley of Northbrook and David Stryker appeared at their own personal request. Following the musical numbers, was a demonstration of keyboard harmony and ear training.

Wilmot School News

Hot lunches are being served just two days this week after which they will be discontinued for the remainder of the year.

Agnita Larson entered the sixth grade on Monday. Agnita attended the Wilmot school in the lower grades but has been living in Chicago for the past year or more.

Final examinations in civics were given to the eighth grade pupils this past week.

A desert exhibit is to be made by the upper grades for the new county superintendent, W. C. Petty.

Auxiliary Meeting Today

The American Legion Auxiliary meets this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ronan of Park avenue. Mrs. Wishman will address the meeting in behalf of the Salvation Army. The meeting promises to be a most interesting one.

The every-day meal — the hasty lunch — the in-between bite cannot be eaten without a distinct sense of pleasure in our Tea Room. The food is so delicious and the service so efficient that your taste and comfort are both delighted and satisfied.
