

The Highland Park Press

Doughboys Can Never Forget

No armistice has ever been signed for the Salvation Army. They still continue a love-inspiring service for the unfortunate who are losing the battle of life.

Salvation Army Home Service Appeal April 1 to 10th

Thursday, April 2, 1931

Price Five Cents