

WEST RIDGE CLUB PLAY IS SUCCESS

"Dulcy" Bows to Crowded House at Lincoln School Saturday Night

Miss Nancy Grace Wright, principal of the West Ridge school, wins new laurels. Under her skillful leadership and able direction the delightfully modern three-act comedy "Dulcy" was presented by the West Ridge Community club at the Lincoln school auditorium, Green Bay road and Lincoln avenue, Highland Park, Saturday night, March 28.

The play, a fascinating comedy of errors, enjoyed long and successful runs in many of our large cities and requires a cast of eight men and three women. The roles were apportioned with consummate skill as evinced by the excellent characterizations by a cast wholly unfamiliar with an actors calling. All parts were naturally and splendidly handled, and the comedy, packed with laughs and humorous situations, was intelligently dealt with. The scene of the three acts was laid in the living room of the suburban home, in Westchester, of Dulcinea and her husband, and the entire action took place in the cycle of twelve hours.

Fine Portrayal

In a highly modernistic setting Dulcy's husband, C. C. Hatcher Jr., as Gordon Smith, gives a most excellent portrayal of a tired and worried business man, madly in love with his wife, but finding the managing of his business affairs apart from his wife's social aspirations, extremely difficult. This kindly, considerate, big hearted husband was an admirable shock absorber for the surprises his wife was constantly showering upon him. Dulcy, Anne L. Griffith, his vivaciously charming and care-free wife, breezes in and out of the capricious and serious complications, with a nonchalance befitting a professional. Dear, blundering, adorable Dulcy's earnestness to be a real helpmate to her husband is highly commendable but her misplaced explanations on the business in hand, appear to thwart her purpose and burlesque the situations. In the end, the shrewd and astute Mr. Forbes thinks he sees through her, and compliments her for her cleverness.

Frank L. Griffith, as Mr. Forbes, the cold calculating businessman of

Fashion Display Held At Collette Soeurs'

As all roads lead to Mecca, so is the fashionable North Shore woman, to all appearances wearing a path to Collette Soeurs' dressmaking establishment in Glencoe these esunny spring days.

Collette Soeurs fashion display is the main cause of all this justifiable flurry. Fashion affairs are booming and zipping up that way. Collette Soeurs are themselves pleased over their splendid success.

Repeat Play Friday

The Mothers club of the Y. W. C. A. are again presenting the play "Sophronia's Wedding," Tuesday evening, April 7, at 8:15 o'clock at the Grace M. E. church.

Mothers-Daughters Banquet Is Held At High School Friday

Miss Nellie L. Holt, director of religious education at Stevens college, Columbia, Mo., spoke on "Young Women and Their World" before 180 mothers and daughters, at the Mothers and Daughters banquet, last Friday evening, in the lunch room at Deerfield-Shields high school.

Songs, toasts, a harp solo, and a violin solo added to the entertainment of the evening.

Marjorie Ingram, who is president of the Girls' club, gave a welcome to the mothers and daughters present, and then gave a toast to the mothers.

Marjorie Frye, social chairman of the Girls' club, was the toastmistress for the evening. She introduced Miss Holt.

Mrs. Danley, mother of Isabel Danley, gave a toast to the girls at the banquet.

Mrs. Ginter, who is a member of the P. T. A., sang. A beautiful violin solo was played by Margaret Esmiz. Grace Arlene Flint accompanied at the piano. A harp solo was played by Mary Allan Hokanson.

Heart Tag Day To Be Held Saturday

Owing to the bad weather last Saturday the Heart Tag day for the Volunteers of America was not held in Highland Park as announced. It was postponed to Saturday, April 4.

The Volunteers of America is a national organization having one or more headquarters in every state. The organization maintains homes for children, for the aged, Hope Halls, where discharged or paroled men may stay while seeking work. During the present time, the organization is providing food and shelter to 5,000 daily in the Chicago area. This is to be a young people's drive to help children less fortunate than themselves who are in the care of the organization.

The tags are to be sold by the children for whatever the purchaser is willing to give. No sum will be too large and none too small to help this worthy cause.

Present Short Sketch at Birthday Party

Campbell chapter No. 712, O. E. S. celebrated their birthday last evening in Masonic temple. The past matrons and past patrons of the chapter presented a clever sketch "How the Story Grew" and a number of the old-time melodies were sung. The program was very well presented and was greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served, in the dining room followed by dancing.
