

Highland Park Methodist Church
North avenue at Laretta place
Frank Davidson Hopkins, minister
The day will open with a "Sunrise" meeting by the Epworth League in the church, which will be led by Frank L. Watson. Following the meeting an Easter breakfast will be served in the church to all who have attended the meeting.

At 9:30, the Sunday school will observe the day with special features at the opening exercises, led by the superintendent, Mr. Wm. Holgate. Mrs. Fred Okey will sing.

At 10:45 comes the main service of the day, the church service of worship. The church will be nicely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Fred Okey will be the soloist for this service. Recorded organ numbers will open and close the service; these were much enjoyed on Palm Sunday. Trinity choir will be heard in the great "Hallelujah Chorus" and Lucy Marsh, well known soloist, will be heard in the famous solo from Handel's "Messiah," "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth." The pastor will take for his theme, "An Easter Message for All."

There will be no meeting of the Epworth League in the evening owing to the sunrise meeting.

At 8 p. m. Sir John Stainer's cantata, "The Crucifixion," will be presented.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy in our recent bereavement.

Miss Laura Wessling,
Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker,
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz.

EASTER MUSIC TO BE FEATURE AT CHURCHES

the solo parts sung by Richard Crooks, tenor, and Lawrence Tibbett, baritone, with Mark Andrews at the organ, at the Highland Park Methodist church. This cantata perhaps more nearly approaches the character of an oratorio than many others and is splendidly reproduced. An unusual feature, and a very beautiful one, will be the showing in connection with each number of the cantata, of a large photographic reproduction of a famous painting of the event being sung. These pictures have been hand colored by the best artists and will be projected on the large screen, many feet square, in full view of all present. Nothing just like this has ever been done here and the combination of splendid music and masterly painting will form a remarkable offering not to be missed. Organ numbers will open and close the service and the well known Dayton choir will also render an anthem.

The annual Easter offering will be received at the morning service and also at the evening hour and it is hoped all will come prepared to contribute liberally.

Zion Lutheran Church

A special program will be presented by the Sunday school, Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

Legion Auxiliary Is Non-Political Group

In order to make its position clear to the public, the following is quoted from the constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary:

"Article II. Section 2. The American Legion Auxiliary shall be absolutely non-political and non-sectarian and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking office or preferment."

Deerfield Unit 738, American Legion Auxiliary, wishes to state that, in accordance with its position thus clearly defined in its constitution, it does not endorse any political organization, party, nor candidate.

This statement was authorized by the executive board at its meeting last Thursday evening, March 26.

Relief Organization Has Fine Program

An entertainment for the benefit of the local Relief organization was given Friday evening, March 27, at the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium. Various churches, clubs and other organizations participated in the program. Due to the stormy weather, the audience was smaller than the previous entertainment.
