Harrison Walther, Vera Purdy, Harold Bloomfield, Junior Copé, Bill Gifford and Gertrude Walters have resumed their studies at the University of Illinois, after spending their spring vacations with their respective parents.

Mrs. Mabel Sanderson and son of Chicago were the week-end guests at the William H. Saathoff home on S. Second street.

Miss Helen Leuer returned to Webster college, Webster Groves, Missouri, on Tuesday, having spent her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leuer of Homewood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd and two children returned to their home in Terre Haute, Monday, having spent the past week with Mrs. John Rapp and family of S. Second street.

Mrs. Forrest D. Rose entertained her 500 club Tuesday evening at her home in Highmoor.

Announcement was made last week of the marriage of Miss Maxine Jenkins of Libertyville and Mr. Emery Sievers of this city, on Saturday, March 28, at Waukegan, the Rev. S. W. Chiddester officiating. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sievers of this city. At the present time Mrs. Sievers is teaching in Libertyville, but at the end of the semester in June the young couple will leave for Youngstown, O., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Alfred Braun of Winnetka entertained eighteen guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Saathoff of S. Second street on Sunday, the occasion being the christening of her nephew, Donald Sanderson of Chicago.

The Mission band of the Bethany church sponsored a party for all members yesterday (Wednesday) at the church.

The Clarence Varney family, formerly of Central avenue, and Miss Eva Lange have moved into their new home on Glenview avenue.

Can the mother of a daughter be a father to the daughter's own child? See "The Shame of Mary Boyle," based on Sean O'Casey's "Juno and the Paycock." Adv.
