

CITY CANDIDATES TO SPEAK FRIDAY NIGHT

speaker, and the non-partisan attitude of the League on the question of all candidates is, of course, well known, in every election, either state, national or local.

This organization has already proved itself a great asset in the community, as pointed out in an editorial some months ago in one of the local newspapers and that the interest of the women in it is growing, is evidenced by the widespread comment due to their keen interest in matters political, and in the complete records not only of the work, but of the voting on the various questions brought up, by every office holder.

Questionnaires sent out by the League from time to time to office-holders has been found of great benefit, both to the voters and the man in office, and all men in public office are coming to realize this more and more.

On Wednesday of next week, April 15, at 2 o'clock, the Highland Park League will hold its annual meeting, but in an entirely different manner than formerly, and the enthusiasm evidenced by the members seems to prove that it is a very happy change.

The board of directors have invited all the members of the League to be their guests at a bridge party and tea on that afternoon. The playing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock, with tea following, and the prizes are also given by the board. This innovation has met with such response from the members that it is expected that the large room of the Y. W. C. A. where all League meetings are held, will be completely filled by bridge tables.

This tea will mark the end of the League year, no further meetings to be held until October.

JUNIOR WORKSHOP TO GIVE PLAY APRIL 18

list country house on the Dover road, and it is here that you will look in upon the lives of these people. They are strangely brought together for awhile and amusingly set on their ways again.

Written by A. A. Milne

A. A. Milne, author of "The Dover Road" is adept in creating a situation of charming and not improbable absurdities and people of Highland Park and Ravinia who remember the excellent work that the different members of the cast have done in high school and North Shore Circuit Theatre productions will know that the parts are being skillfully interpreted.

Miss Harriett Golden of Ravinia is acting as general business manager with Mr. Richard Paynter and the Misses Trevisan, Canright, Clason, Smith, Bowden, Brigham and Mayo, assisting her with properties, publicity, and ticket sales. The ticket sale begins this week. The small admission charge is made in order to defray the expenses of producing a play given as recently in New York and Chicago as was this one.

It is hoped that this comedy will be successfully received so that the Junior Drama Workshop may look forward to a future that will see them rank with the dramatic organizations of other North Shore suburbs. If you want to show your interest in the efforts of the Junior Workshop and be repaid by an entertaining evening, you will want to see "The Dover Road" on Saturday night, April 18.—Contributed.

$175 Is Collected on "Heart Tag Day"

The "heart tag day" receipts when checked up by Miss Helen Boyce, who took charge of the Volunteers of America tag day held here on Saturday last, totalled the sum of $174.37

The children worked faithfully from early in the morning until the close, and those interested in the affair are deeply grateful to all who in any way helped to make the undertaking a success.

At the close of the contest it was found that Virginia Leffert was entitled to the first prize, having secured $19.08 for her tags; the second prize was won by Gladys Brown, who had $17.29; the third winner was Suzanne Coale, who had $17.16; and the fourth and fifth prizes were won by Dorothy Boylan and Janet Greuel.

The other children were made happy with movie passes.

ROSE GARDEN PRIZE AROUSES INTEREST

panion desires to reward at this time, more than the excellence of an particular rose garden."

This competition is naturally of great interest to the community at large, and particularly to the Ravinia Garden club which hopes to enter it as official sponsors for the municipal rose garden they are now planning for the city, and for which they are raising funds by the garden fair to be held Saturday, May 9th, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. at the park at Ravinia station.

The fact that this project has been approved by Mayor Lewis and the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary club, the school boards, and superintendents, the Boy and Girl Scout organizations, and the Ravinia association, the Woman's clubs of Ravinia and Highland Park, the Highland Park Garden club, and has the hearty co-operation of the Park Board, who are doing everything in their power to further plans for the fair, as well as for the rose garden, is most timely as it makes this garden the logical candidate of Highland Park for this prize.
