

Stewart Resigns His Circuit Theatre Job

John Allen Stewart, business manager of the North Shore Circuit theatre for the last five years, has resigned that office, to take effect in September. He has announced the circuit theatre's next play to be "Salt Water," a comedy by Dan Jarrett and John Golden. The cast will be engaged by Samuel S. Otis and Hope Summers will direct it. It will be presented in May in the north shore towns.

Deerfield Locals

Mr. George Engstrom was elected school director of the Deerfield grammar school on Saturday evening to succeed Mr. Julian Smith. There was no opposition and only 27 votes were cast. The annual school report was given following the election. The Deerfield school board members are William Galloway, C. W. Boyle and George Engstrom.

At the Wilmot school, Mr. M. O. Hopkins and Mr. Roy Clavey were elected. Two vacancies occurred, one for the unexpired term of Mr. E. J. Ginter, who became a non-resident of the Wilmot school district when Bannockburn seceded last summer, and the other for a three-year term of the outgoing member, Mr. Elmer Clavey. Mr. Clavey has been a valuable member and regret was expressed when he refused to be a candidate for re-election. The Wilmot school board members are E. L. Vinyard, M. O. Hopkins, and Roy Clavey.

Bannockburn is to have its own school which will be ready for occupancy about September 1.

There were 277 votes cast at the Deerfield-Shields high school election in the Deerfield town hall on Saturday afternoon. Mr. C. W. Getty received 275 votes and Mr. George McBride received 268 for members of the high school board of education.

Harry Olander of Highwood was unopposed, also, and was elected township school trustee. He received 175 votes in Deerfield.

The total number of votes cast in the three townships for Mr. McBride was 1363; for Mr. Getty, 1349.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harder visited Mrs. Peter Harder, Sunday evening, who is ill at her home in Highland Park.

Miss Irene Rockenbach visited the First Congregational church school in Waukegan on Sunday. Miss Rockenbach had been invited to be their guest and to observe and give suggestions. She visited the various departments of the Sunday school which are meeting in the Glen Flora public school until the erection of their new Congregational church building. She was the dinner guest of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Goodwin. In the afternoon a worker's conference of the officers and teachers was held. There was an informal discussion based on Miss Rockenbach's observations.

A meeting of the North Northfield Cemetery association was held at the George Rockenbach home Saturday evening. All the members were present, with the exception of three, Mr. O. B. Brand, who is in Florida, and Mr. Edwin Forke of Chicago, and Mr. Frank Forke of Wheeling. The regular routine of business was transacted. Julius Johnson was re-employed as caretaker.

Dorothy Jean, the little daughter of the C. T. Andersons, has the chicken pox.

A card party will be given by the Eastern Star Thursday evening (tonight) at the Masonic temple.

A spring festival is to be given at the Wilmot school about the first of May. "New Adventures in Flower Land," an operetta, is to be presented by the pupils, under the direction of Miss Lyravine Votaw's cadet teachers of the Bush Conservatory of Music.

The Deerfield fire department will give an old time dance at the Deerfield grammar school gymnasium on Saturday evening, April 18.

LIBRARY

Week-End Reading

You would be surprised at the number of mothers who visit the library on Friday or Saturday. Their one comment, "I want some good books ready for the week-end when the family is all at home." You know there is a book age in every normal child—is he having the best? A child book-worm is out of mischief and in a safe place, too.
